Many Exhibits From Cranbrook Artists in Michigan Show

The annual exhibition for Michigan artists opened Friday at the Detroit Institute of Arts, to continue through Dec. 12. Many faculty members, students and former students of Cranbrook are included among the exhibitors. Among the paintings will be works by Matthew Borer, Edward Cole, Edward Elberidge, Ann Hall Elberidge, Matt Kahn, Ivan Majdrakoff, James Summers and Miles Yunnickoff.

Charles Dunsenbury is showing his sculptured "Rhino" which was awarded the Anna Scripps Whitcomb prize, and one other piece. Others in this showing are Paul Kirchner, Harold Stueland and Arnold Ward.

The faculty members who have exhibits are Zoltan Sepsely, Wallace Mitchell, William McVey, Robert Lohman, Clifford West and Margaret Gilford.

Among former Cranbrook Academy of Arts students represented in the exhibition are Thad Brykal-

Vaughan Gridmen End Successful Season

Of Bloomfield's four football teams, three completed their schedules during the last week. The "Varsity," undefeated to date, has still one game to play before finishing the season. It will face Waterford on November 18 on the home field.

The Middlers, with weights ranging from 45 to 90 pounds, have won three games, two over Detroit Country Day and one over Detroit University School, and lost one to DUS. This team is coached by George Spina.

The Sub Middlers, with weights running from 80 to 110 pounds, coached by Felix Wotila, have also won three and lost one, winning two over DUS and splitting with DCD.

The Middlers, weighing from 115 to 135, have won two, lost two and tied two. They split with Waterford, won one and tied one with DUS and tied one and lost one to DCD. Edward Dykstra is the coach of this team.

In 1947, 2,050 persons were killed and 7,000 injured walking on rural highways.

'Winter Wonderland' Will Be Dance Theme

By Larry Young

The Student Congress announced last week that Winter Wonderland will be the theme of this year's dance which will be held Dec. 4 at the Community House. Invitations of the cross country and football teams.

The decorations will consist of snowdrifts and stars that will feature winter sports and snow scenes. Don Dierker's orchestra has been secured for the night.

Sue Hervey is financial chairman; Barbara Hughes and Nancy Howell are in charge of decorations; Marty Miller, invitational; Bob Ervin, tickets; Sarah Breitenstein and Mary Kemp, publicity; Sally Collins and Charly Davies, clean up; Nancy Jacobi, program; Cynthia Hadley and Jim Patterson, entertainment. Dick Shalberg and Dick Reilly contracted the orchestra and Ken Babcock is general chairman.
