Dramatics Classes Start at Library Soon After Jan. 1

According to present plans, Birmingham will have available, shortly after the first of the year, a series of afternoon courses in dramatics for girls and boys.

Annetta Wonnberger, co-director of the Cranbrook Theatre School will offer a series of courses for various age-groups in the Baldwin Public Library. Ordinarily, the courses will run for a single session each week with a production in each series, and practical instruction in voice, speech and pantomime.

Rev. Warner Forsyth, Former St. James Rector Here, Moved North As Missioner

Announcement was made this week by the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emarich, S. T. D., Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, that the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth, B. D. rector of St. James' Church, Grosse Ile, will be placed shortly after the first of the year in charge of an entire Mission Field in the northern part of the Diocese.

Mr. Forsyth, who first came to Michigan in 1922, will have the title of Canon Missioner, and will be in charge of the East Tawas field, comprising the countries of Crawford, Osceola, Alcona and Iosco. He will develop the work of the Church in that field. Mr. Forsyth will live in East Tawas and serve Christ Church, East Tawas and St. John's, Au Sable, Osceola.

Quarterback Club to Show Movies of Controversial Game

Birmingham Sideline Quarterbacks will hold their second "Football Movie Night" at Baldwin high school Monday evening. The program, scheduled for 8 o'clock, will be known as "Michigan State Night". The Michigan State-Penn State game, over which there was a great deal of controversy regarding a clipping penalty, will be shown. The penalty nullified a sensational 99 yard touchdown run by George Guerin, the diminutive backfield star.

The Quarterbacks, in their efforts to get movies which will be of greatest interest to all members, have procured this film in order that each may see for himself the much-contested play, and form his own judgment regarding the infringement of the rules which nullified the touchdown.

The entire film is in color, and shows the complete and terrific battle which these two teams staged. A member of the Michigan State coaching staff will be present to act as narrator for the film.

Coch Vincent Scantaine and members of his Baldwin team again will be guests of the club. Members are also inviting their wives to this meeting, and the members of the Barnum Junior high team with their coach, Fred Gibson. In addition to these special guests, the public is invited to attend.

We Heard It Said By:

Mrs. Joha Ormond of North Woodward avenue, with Mr. Ormond, recently returned from a trip abroad, said: "Since we were only tourists, the impressions we received of England and France were definitely superficial. Although there is plenty of food in the restaurants, the prices are terribly high and the average man is really having a hard time making ends meet."
