Second Production of Dunstan's Guild Will Be "The Bat"

St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook will revive "The Bat" by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood, as its second production of the season in the guild playhouse, Cranbrook Pavilion on Lons Pine Road. Dates for the show, which is open to the public, have been set for Friday and Saturday, Dec. 3 and 4, 10 and 11. The Broadway's most successful mystery comedies, "The Bat", ran for over 800 performances when it was first produced in 1920. It has long been an outstanding favorite of theatre-goers and is revived now as the first in a series of popular successes to be presented annually by St. Dunstan.

Intricate Sets This great grand-daddy of all playhouse hidden rooms, blinking candies and screams in the night will be directed by Jervis B. McMechan, the Guild's executive director. Intricate and spooky sets for the production have been designed by Richard Gregg of the Cranbrook Academy of Art, who has also designed sets for the Lamazoo Civic Players. Assisting Mr. McMechan is Mrs. Donald A. McMechan, who is working on the technical staff include Mrs. Muriel W. Lane, proprietor, Mrs. Carl Loyer, Miss Janet Zinner, sound effects; Hobart Andree, lights; Fred Pew and Roy Leitch, sets; and Mrs. Lewis C. Keenan, tickets.

A Turkey Trot at Turkey Time for Adams School PTA Turkey time will be celebrated with more than just a turkey trot at Adams school Saturday, Nov. 20, the second in a series of square dances will be presented, under sponsorship of the Adams PTA. Square-dances at the school have become a community wide, event attracting enthusiasts not only from the immediate neighborhood but from other parts of Birmingham. Instruction is provided "beginners" under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Brennan of Detroit, callers, who "walk" the neophyte through the various measures of the dances before calling begins. In keeping with the Thanksgiving spirit several prizes appropriate to the occasion are to be presented. An old-time orchestra will play for the dances. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Monroe are co-chairman for the November square dance, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Walker and Mrs. and Mrs. T. L. Woodworth, according to Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Silbar, general chairmen for the year. At the first square dance held in October more than 48 couples participated. The informal dress of the dancers, some of them appearing in quaint evening skirts, dresses, and with the men in jeans and cowboy shirts has added to the spirit. It was announced that the November square dance will be the last in January, no dance being scheduled during December.

Vaudeville Show Main Feature of Fair Tomorrow Members of the Pierce school PTA are busy putting the final touches on the annual Pierce Fair to be held Friday, Nov. 19, from 9:30 to 9:30 p.m. Contributions from the parents of baked goods, handwork, candy, canned goods, and articles for the white elephant and rummage booths and for the fish pond are pouring in. Free movies are on the schedule for the children in the afternoon. The main feature of the evening program will be a professional vaudeville show consisting of four acts. Don Adams, white faced clown, will circulate among the children before the performance and will also perform a comedy act. Tommy Cowan and his Great Dane "Tiny" will give a laddered pantomime and Hal Hamm will do comedy magic with audience participation. The final act will be a Punch and Judy show.

Familiar Scenes About Town Are Depicted in "Birmingham on Canvas"

A group of local women who have been painting for approximately eight years will present an exhibit "Birmingham on Canvas" and tea tomorrow from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. in the Community House. Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. Thomas Thurber, Mrs. Dwight Ireland and Mrs. William Carter have been asked to pour. The group, known as the Birmingham Painters, presents exhibitions of their work every fall and spring as well as having a standing exhibit at Grinnell throughout the year. During the summer, these women have been working on their paintings in and around town and the canvases will depict such familiar scenes as Brown street, different scenes of the River Rouge, unique spots along Adams road, the poplars at the Stornfels farm which is a familiar landmark to local residents, Grubbs Lake and snow scenes of colorful locales of the town.

A Prize Winner For the past three years Sarah Sarkisian, director of Arts and Crafts in Detroit has been instructing the group which is a working group using different mediums such as oil, water colors and etching. Several members belong to the Michigan Society of Science, Arts and Letters and two members have paintings hung in the current Michigan Art Exhibit in the Art Museum. Mrs. R. D. Williams is a prize winner of this exhibition. In the "Birmingham on Canvas" showing, there will be as well as landscapes a few flower studies of local gardens and some portraits of Birmingham women.
