Keeping Score of Rice Deliveries

LL-Col. Hubert G. Schench, of Palo Alto, Calif., records the latest percentage of the rice delivery quota on a symbolic bridge erected in downtown Tokyo to spur crop collections.

The SCORE PAD

By Jim Gray

(Sense and nonsense at the bridge table. Other settings.)

Now for some real serious contract—by a sheer Duke of a safety play. The heart seven was opened. It then looked cold for nina tricks because the percentage split in clubs is three to one.

The Birmingham team was composed of the following players: Andy Anderson, Jim Gray, Gull Rothfus, Chuck Thumser, Charlie Strellinger, Harry Wheller, Arch and May Bogus, Gladys Dugles, Olive McLaren, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin White, Ed Clarke, Marie McElhane, May Esch and Evelyn Kysor.

The Pontiac team consisted of: Sammy Hyams, Henry Georgia, John and Florence Kraus, Myrtle Rummel, Ernest and Elizabeth Guy, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Hood, Melvin Small, Galen Levey, Susie Davidson, Margaret McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hower, and Jean Heugh, with C. W. Churchill as an alternate.

The following board presented points of interest:

Table with columns for NORTH, WEST, SOUTH, and EAST, listing card suits and counts.

Pontiac's ace north and south team, Sammy Hyams and Henry Georgia, bid this board to six spades, north made it on a squeeze in hearts and clubs.

I played the board at three no-trump, south, and thought I had a top score when I made six—until the successful six spade bid came along. West opened the heart three against me. I ducked in dummy, East put up the queen, and I took the trick with the ace.

Another from the same match:

Table with columns for NORTH, WEST, SOUTH, and EAST, listing card suits and counts.

Andy Anderson and I, along with practically all other north and south teams, bid this to three no-trump, south. I believe that we were the only team to make the OAKLAND COUNTY DUPLICATE BRIDGE RESULTS Birmingham. (Community House every Wednesday evening and alternate Friday afternoons. Open to the public.) Nov. 8, 7 1/2 tables. North and South: Ted Nellis and Henry Georgia; Brown Dugles and Bobby Renton. East and West: Ernest Guy and Sammy Hyams; Susie Davidson and Margaret McGuire.

Pontiac. (Hotel Walden. Every Monday evening. Open to the public.) Nov. 8, 7 1/2 tables. North and South: Ted Nellis and Henry Georgia; Mrs. Wade Hood and Mrs. Wellman. East and West: Sammy Hyams and Mrs. Evans; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis.

Cub Pack Awards

Six awards were made to members of the Cub Pack B-2 of Quarters School at their meeting Friday evening. John Fairbairn of Den I received the Silver Arrow Wolf Rank award as did Alan Wright, Den II and George Limp, Den VI.

Several members had earned awards, but not in time for presentation at this meeting. They will be given at the December meeting, along with other advancement which will have been earned by then.

Den I is planning a trip to the Leader Dog school on Rochester road in the near future.
