First Methodist Church Notices

This church joins the other Protestant churches of the city in the Union Thanksgiving Day service in the Presbyterian Church at 8:00 a.m. The Rev. Harold Towne of the St. James Episcopal Church will deliver the sermon.

The junior choir meets for rehearsal on Friday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock in the Church House under the direction of Miss Anita Peterson. This is for all children in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

Stewart Peck will direct the worship service of the Youth Fellowship on Sunday evening at 6:30. A social time and refreshments will close the evening's activities.

Basketball practice will be held in the Barnum school for the church team immediately after choir rehearsal, 8:00 to 9:00.

The Young Adults of the church will have a gathering on Friday evening, Dec. 3, in the church parlors at 8:00 o'clock sharp. This group includes all those from approximately 19 to approximately 35 years of age, married or single. Further announcement will appear next week.

A new-type electric water cooler for business office or recreation room also has a storage compartment of two cubic feet and freezes three trays of ice cubes.

Finds Solution to Problems

What Every Woman Knows, delightfully played by Miss Gertrude Lawrence and Mr. Dennis King. Finally "John Shand" learns to laugh with "Maggie" with consequent solution of various problems. The play is presented in the radio series, GREAT SCENES FROM GREAT PLAYS, which offers each Friday evening at 8:00.

All Michigan bats are absolutely harmless, and need not be feared in any way. They may bite sharply if handled incautiously, but are less dangerous than a full grown mouse.

Men's Club to Hear Dr. W. Glen Harris

The Men's Club of the First Methodist Church will meet in the church parlors Tuesday, Nov. 30 for a dinner meeting. The speaker for the evening will be the Rev. Dr. W. Glen Harris of the First Presbyterian Church. His topic, "The Christian Church in an Unchristian World" has been based on his experiences during the past summer when he traveled in Europe.

We Heard It Said By:

Alex Pollock of Detroit, member of the Hall-Liles management consultant firm: "Birmingham is well known throughout the nation as a fine residential community. It seems to me that it has the best chance of any community to determine just what it is going to be 15 years from now. But Birmingham citizens must decide NOW what they want to have. How far the new city plan commission can go depends on what the people want and how much assistance they give in obtaining it. Public opinion will control what Birmingham is to be."

Will Speak

Bishop Hubbard

The Men's club of Christ Church Cranbrook will participate in a father and son's corporate Communion on the first Sunday in Advent, Nov. 28, at 8:30 a.m. The Communion service will be followed by breakfast in the parish house.

The Rt. Rev. Russell S. Hubbard, Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Michigan, will be present at the Communion service and will give a brief talk at the breakfast.

Bishop Hubbard was consecrated as Suffragan Bishop in Bar Harbor, Me., this last August. This is his first official visit to Christ Church Cranbrook. All men of the parish and their sons are urged to attend.

At Vespers, Sunday, Nov. 28, 4:30 p.m. in the church, Sybil Tingstad, baritone soloist of the Christ Church Cranbrook choir will present a group of songs appropriate to the Advent season. Included will be two solos from Handel's "Messiah". Thingstad will be accompanied at the organ by Philip Malpas, parish organist. Due to Thanksgiving vacation at Cranbrook school, there will be no student service this Sunday.
