Parents, Teachers Combine Talents in "Adams Antics"

Final touches have been put on the "Adams Antics" minstrel show to be given in the school auditorium on Nov. 5 and 6 by the parents and teachers. The show has been kept brief so that children may also attend.

Rollie Keener, Irene Mortensen and Carabel Ball have worked together as producers of the show. Ted Frieling acts as interactor and introduces and men Mac Oakley who croons "You Must Have Been a Beautiful Baby"; Leo Sheehan whose number is "Hair of Gold" and Bob Gougeon who because of the song he sings, is now known as "Big Dope Diddy". Allen Parrish begins "Go Down Moses" but ends by preaching a novel sermon in a novel fashion.

Some of the feminine participants, Irene Mortensen, Virginia Domanski and Shirley Kestow cut a few tapers. Red hot music will be provided by a four-piece band consisting of Fred Meyer on the piano, Bill Bogon on the guitar and Bud Engard on the bass viol.

Specialty Acts will feature Bill Torrence singing "Ole Man River" and Waldo Fellows who renders "Shortenin' Bread". Larry Quinn and Vergil Gipson provide some comedy with a harmonica and "Ida". Also on the program are the Lion's club quartette, Bill Spence, Clyde Collins, Russell McBride and Tony Freeman who will present their one and only version of Bing and the Andrew sisters. Rollie Reese and Walter Panser are all set to go with their "A Two-Timers Skit".

Backbone of the show will be Webster Six, Kim Kimberley, Larry and Vergil Gipson made up of T. Quinn, Wayne Mortimer, Cal Denison, Bill Hancock, Paul Carter, Jim Durston, Sherman LaMessure, Waldo Fellows, Hal Needley, Dick Melcher, John Reagh, Al Burdick, Tom Longene, Ted Millington, Bill Torrence and Vergil Gipson.

Among those who have labored back stage to make the wheels go round are Charlotte Walker, ways and means committee; Betty Harrison and Irene Mortensen, costumes; Carabel Ball, music; Marion Wentworth, scenery; Lillian Sutton and Art Greenwald, 7215 Shreveport, and Ken Leavenworth as business manager.

Needlework Guild In-Gathering on Tuesday, Nov. 9

Mrs. Fritz Hyde, Jr., first vice-president of the Birmingham Needlework Guild of America, has been named chairman of the annual in-gathering to be held at the Poppleton PTA on Tuesday, Nov. 9, in her home at 1166 Yosemite for a one o'clock dress luncheon and afternoon of sewing.

Mrs. Hyde has asked Mrs. E. J. Anderson, Mrs. Carl J. Whirl, Mrs. Oscar Bahr, Mrs. Ralph Polk, Mrs. Washburne Wright and Mrs. John Edwards to assist her.

The yearly in-gathering is the climax of the Guild's activities. The new garments collected at this time greatly augment the clothing allowance of the various local and Oakland County charities and institutions which benefit annually from this event.

As always a gift of two new garments of identical size or a money donation enables anyone to become a member of the Needlework Guild.

Mrs. Sterling Saunders, reports that there is a particular need this year for school age children's clothing, women's night gowns and slips and men's undershirt and business shirts and sox.
