YES! MANY NEW LOW PRICES ON A&P's FAMOUS "SUPER-RIGHT" MEATS

"Super-Right" meat prices are being lowered as quickly as market costs permit, but "Super-Right" quality is as high as ever. That means every "Super-Right" cut you buy gives you your money's worth of tender, juicy, good eating. To give you still greater value, every one is Close-Trimmed of excess waste before being weighed. Remember this when buying meat, because it's not the price per pound that counts but what you get for your money!

A&P Super Markets

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA

Queen of World's Largest Free Meal

Doris Vietmeier, 16, samples the wares of chef Hilbert Haack, after being selected queen of the 28th annual Sauserkraut Festival in Forestburg, Ill. Over 20,000 persons jammed into the tiny town (population 902) to consume the feast of winners and learn that what went into making "the world's largest free meal."

L. C. Gillette to Head Scout Troop 5

Announcement of the appointment of Louis C. Gillette, as scoutmaster of Birmingham Troop 5, was made at a troop committee meeting attended by fathers, at the home of Paul Wilson, 962 Puritan, last week. Howard H. Robinson, Jr., has resigned as scoutmaster, due to a change of residence. He will act, however, as secretary-treasurer of the newly organized troop committee. The new scoutmaster's brother, John, was formerly scoutmaster of the troop, and both were in the Air Corps during the recent war.

We Heard It Said By . . .

Vera W. Griffith, Chief of the fire department: "There's one thing that adds to the excitement of a fireman's life, and that's live ammunition popping off in a fire. We had that happen a few days ago, and it sure would mean a lot to us if people would store bullets and shells where they wouldn't lay down a barrage for us to face."

City to Proceed with Completion of Maple-Willets Alley

Since the city received no bids on clearing the right-of-way for the Maple-Willets alley, the city manager has been authorized by the city commission to negotiate a contract on a cost-plus basis. In order for the alley to be completed, it is necessary to alter the facades of three storage buildings fronting on the alley, City Manager Donald C. Egbert explained. "Some of the work will be done this fall, while the entire job should be completed by next spring," Egbert said.

We Heard It Said By . . .

Mayor Milton F. Mellenber: "The city's annual Halloween party, held last Saturday evening, was a great success. On behalf of the city, I wish to thank all the many merchants, organizations and individual citizens whose efforts attributed to this success. We express our great thanks."
