Patrol Leaders Receive New Capes

—Great Lakes Camera Photo

* * *

Rain capes and hoods were presented to the 65 boys in the school patrol group at a special ceremony held last week. The new white rubber capes, were donated by the Birmingham Lions Club. Each carries a safety patrol design and the words "Birmingham Safety Patrol" across the back. The capes were designed by Mrs. Alice McDougall of Walnut Lake. The capes were manufactured by the Wesley Gibbons shop on Eton road, while the Pandora Products company also of Eton road, did the lettering.

In Charge of Program

Sgt. Henry Timm of the Birmingham police department was in charge of the ceremonies. The capes were presented to patrol leaders by Roland J. Reese, president of the Lions Club. Other guests from the club who were present included Donald Cummings, secretary-treasurer, and members of the board.

Timm, organizer of the bicycle safety courts in Birmingham, is in charge of the juvenile safety campaign here. Through his efforts these boys have been trained in the proper methods of handling both pedestrian and motor traffic at crossings in order to prevent accidents and injury to school children as they travel from home to classes.

Boys will receive special awards for their work, from time to time, as recognition for the work they are doing.
