To Speak

Mrs. Helen M. Tewes

Mrs. Helen M. Tewes, lecturer for the school of education at the University of Michigan, will address the floorcraft class PTA at a meeting in the Wing Lake school Tuesday, Nov. 9 at 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Tewes has taught in teacher training programs in four colleges and although she has recently retired from the faculty, she is continuing to lecture and to conduct workshops in parent education for the University extension service.

The meeting is being held in the Wing Lake building to give parents an opportunity to inspect recently completed additions to that building.

Jean Gibbs

Tuesday night we held our monthly business meeting. Plans are under way for our semi-formal dance to be held December 18 at the Community House. Bill Mutch is the chairman, but more information about this later in the month. After the business meeting we had an hour of sound comic movies.

Anyone having used toys that can be fixed up with some paint glue or nails please bring them to the Community House and leave them with our director, Shelby Ingalls. These toys will be used for our Christmas Party for underprivileged children.

We are also going to dress/dolls and make stuffed animals. Thursday evenings will be used to make these things and get them in order.

Nan Nelson is chairman for the November activities Committee with Don Brownie, Florence Dugger and Ed Maizer assisting her. Here is the schedule: Nov. 9. Grab your partner for a square dance; Nov. 18. An open date; Nov. 17. A Wednesday night, A roller skating party; Nov. 23. There will be another big open house, Nov. 30. Will be announced later.

Bowling has begun at the Birmingham Bowling Alley every Sunday evening at 6:00 p.m. Anyone interested in bowling with us meet us there next Sunday.

New members are always welcome, so come down and see us any Tuesday or Thursday night from 8:00 to 11:00.

Story Tellers' to Offer Community Service Here

Members of the Birmingham Story Tellers' League formulated plans for the coming year at their first meeting on Oct. 28. Mrs. J. Rowland Quinn was named president pro tem, with permanent officers to be elected at the next meeting. Plans for a local constitution will be discussed at that time.

The National Story Tellers' League, founded in 1908 at the University of Tennessee, was organized for the purpose of training story tellers for local community service. Members of the Birmingham League will be available to groups in this area desiring their help with program material.

Teachers, Boy Scout and Girl Scout leaders, and members of religious groups are invited to attend the next meeting on Nov. 18 in the Baldwin Public Library.
