Cynthia Heideman is Wed In Christ Church Cranbrook

Miss Cynthia Heideman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hendrick Heideman of Henley drive exchanged nuptial vows Friday evening with Charles Anthony Randall, the son of Mrs. Charles Sabin of Gloucester, Mass., and Dr. Robert Ransdell of Washington, D. C., at a single ring ceremony which the Rev. Robert L. DeWitt performed in Christ Church Cranbrook.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was gown in candlelight satin. The dress was fashioned with an off-shoulder effect, a yoke of illusion bordered with a scallop which was embroidered with brilliants, and long sleeves. The full skirt which was highlighted with a bustle, swept into a circular train. A Juliet cap edged with embroidered-scallops held her full length veil and she carried gardenias and stephanotis.

Mrs. Arthur Brown of Ann Arbor acted as matron of honor in a cherry velvet dress. The bridesmaids, Mrs. William Brenton of Iowa City, Iowa; Mrs. George Heideman, Jr., of Albuquerque, N. Mexico; and Miss Nancy Nolan of Grosse Ile were also in cherry velvet dresses. Mrs. Brown carried an arm bouquet and the honor maids carried muffs of white chrysanthemums. Young Tammy Miller of London, England, was the flower girl.

Robert Sabin of New York City served his brother as best man and the ushers were Tommy Sabins of Boston, Mass.; George W. Heideman, a brother of the bride of Auburquerque, N. Mexico; and Carl Schiffer of Washington, D. C.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Heideman wore grey crepe and a pink orchid. Mrs. Sabin was in brown net and a yellow orchid was pinned to her shoulder.

Following the reception which was held at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left for New Orleans and Florida. For the first of the journey, the new Mrs. Ransdell selected an aqua gabardine suit with brown accessories and a white orchid. They will make their home in Tampa, Fla.

Suzanne Burnside Becomes Bride in Afternoon Rites

St. Dunstan's Chapel in Christ Church Cranbrook was the setting Sunday for the two o'clock nuptials of Miss Suzanne Burnside and Terence George Jackson.

Mrs. Nina Kathaus of Birmingham was the only attendant in a midnight blue gabardine suit, a winter white hat and beige accessories. Hers was a hand corsage of gold mums.

Lorry Fischer of Wilmette, Ind., acted as best man and seating the guests were Fred Fischer of Wilmette and Richard Alberts of Chicago.

Following the reception which was held in the Burnside home, the couple left for Gary, Ind., where they will make their home.

Max Cornell Will Show Colored Slides on Japan to MOMS

Max Cornell of Chester street will show 250 colored slides on Japan, including a series of 20 showing Mikimoto who is known as the pearl king of the world and the man who developed colored pearls, at a special meeting of the MOMS club on Wednesday, Nov. 10 at 8:30 p. m. in the Community House Banquet Room.

This program has been announced as open to the adult public.

A 1945 graduate of Baldwin high school, Cornell went into the army in 1942 and was stationed with the Eighth Army military government from Jan. 30, 1947, until Feb. 18, 1948. He was in Tokyo for 12 months with the United States War Relocation Authority where he was a clerk-typist assisting the colonel who commanded the vault.

Besides the slides, Cornell will also display articles which he brought back from Japan.

To Marry

Jr. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dobson, Sr., of Ferndale. The bride-elect has asked her sister, Ruth to be her maid of honor and Joseph Bolan of Ferndale will serve as the best man. The informal nuptials will be performed by the Rev. Robert Willoughby in the First Methodist Church, Ferndale, at 5 o'clock.

"It's just Wonderful!"

... say the half-million happy people now sleeping under General Electric Automatic Electric Blankets.

You, too, will say that you never knew what sleeping comfort was until you relaxed under a GE Automatic Blanket. The gentle warmth the blanket gives is automatically maintained at the same temperature all night long by the GE lockable control. When room temperature drops, the control sends more warmth into the blanket. When room temperature rises, less warmth goes into the blanket. Thus, YOU are kept at the always-even sleeping temperature you like best, during normal changes in room temperature. No more shivering nights . . . no more piling on extra blankets.

Don't wait! Make sure that this winter you'll sleep in automatically controlled sunny warmth . . . under a wonderful General Electric Automatic Blanket.

AVAILABLE IN THREE MODELS

Twin-bed One-control	66 to 86 inches	$39.95
Double-bed One-control	72 to 86 inches	$41.95
Double-bed Two-control	72 by 86 inches	$52.95

Colors: ROSE-BLUE-GREEN-CEAR

The Automatic Blanket is carefully made to meet rigid General Electric safety standards, and is approved by Underwriters Laboratories, Inc. It is certified suitable by the American Institute of Licensing.

League of Women Voters Distribute 7,000 Pamphlets

Birmingham voters went to the polls Tuesday better informed because the seven issues they had to decide upon because of a leaflet distributed to nearly every voter in the city. Mrs. Robert L. DeWitt.

New League members, old League members and even civil-minded non-League members participated in the seven-day house project during which 7,000 leaflets were distributed. In all, some 500 women rang door bells and passed out the literature. Mrs. Peter Loomis, voters service chairman of the League, reported.

"This was a project involving our entire membership," Mrs. Loomis said. "It was big job. We were happy to have the support of interested women to help us. The workers who went from house to house handing out the information were very well received. Some of the door bells were even invited in for coffee, and many were asked for information pertaining to the League."

District Captains

The district captains in charge of the distribution were Mrs. T. Hollister Mabley, Mrs. Theron Van Dusen, Mrs. William Estery, Mrs. Orenna Burt, Miss Ila Parich, Mrs. W. H. Burdum, Mrs. R. W. Reilly and Mrs. M. Hyde. Bloomfield distribution was in charge of Mrs. Gustava Pope, Mrs. R. S. Plexico, Mrs. E. M. Mize, Mrs. Edwin Procter, Wing Lake.

Help from non-League women was given by Mrs. E. Frederick Meyer, Mrs. Thomas L. Woodworth, Mrs. Arthur L. McDonald, Mrs. Walter C. Patton, Mrs. Robert Jones, Mrs. Carl Marr, Mrs. A. Leslie Schaeffer, Mrs. Barbara Jones, Mrs. John Hulton, Mrs. Herbert Poppleton, Mrs. John Allman, Mrs. John Mulcep, Mrs. William Carter, Mrs. Mike Hargadon, Mrs. Chas. Reynolds, Mrs. Anthony Terbeck, Mrs. Carlin Hanford, Mrs. John L. Thurber, Mrs. Joseph Willis, Mrs. Chas. Coburn, Mrs. Ivan Van Schoek, Mrs. Bennett Wright, Mrs. Roy Miller, Mrs. Cliff Harper, Miss Pearl Hollister, Mrs. John Pietsch, Mrs. Emil Moonen and Mrs. Bethel Kelly.

Children Can Make Christmas Presents in Ceramics Class

Birmingham youngsters between the ages of 11 and 14 years are being given the opportunity to make their own Christmas presents for their parents by Mrs. A. K. Toepfer of Knox street who is starting a ceramics class for the younger generation on Saturday, Nov. 6. The students will also be taught how to make their own slates.

The classes will be held from 10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. a Saturday until Christmas time.

Mrs. Toepfer has taught pottery classes during the spring at The Community House and also has been on the jury for the Detroit Artists' Market.

New and Beautiful Lamps . . .

The Lamps now on view at LaBelles are strikingly beautiful. Together with their distinctive, complementary shades they are destined to work wonders for jaded rooms in need of freshness.

For what is more important to a room's entire motif than the right Lamps? After sun-down they do more for a room than anything else. Make certain that yours strike the right note of cheer and restfulness.

Costume jewelry with character

Costume Jewelry is primarily of two kinds: worthy, and unworthy. The carefully groomed lady always seeks, and finds, and wears but one kind—worthy costume jewelry with character.

From the leading jewelry craftsmen we have collected those choice pieces of costume jewelry which are entirely befitting today's mode and, in addition, possess that inherent quality of character.

In distinctiveness of design, careful selecting and combining of stones and metals, and in all the beauty of hand-crafting, this jewelry is entirely worthy of the well-groomed lady's selection!
