

Miss Nancy DaLee Completes Plans for Her Marriage

Miss Nancy Pauline DaLee has completed plans for her marriage to Byron Edward Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Byron Ellis of Oakland avenue, on Saturday, Oct. 23. The Rev. Arnold Runkel will officiate at the 4 o'clock rites which are to be held in the First Methodist Church.

The bride-elect, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. DaLee of Pilgrim road, has asked her sister, Miss Janice DaLee, to be her maid of honor. Another sister, Mrs. George Willison, Jr., of Grand Rapids and Mrs. William W. DaLee of Detroit are to serve as the bridesmaids.

William Ellis will be the best man and the ushers have been named as Frank Kane of Ann Arbor, James Gilchrist of Chicago, William W. DaLee a brother of the bride of Detroit and Derwood Gamble of Lansing.

Botunda Inn will be the scene of the reception following the church ceremony.

Miss DaLee has been honored at numerous pre-nuptial parties. This week, Mrs. Harvey Rosko was hostess at a miscellaneous shower on Tuesday, and Wednesday Miss Margaret Newell feted the bride-to-be at a kitchen shower.

Kingswood Alumnae

Mrs. Jules DeBaughien of Harmon avenue opened her home for the annual business meeting of the Kingswood school Cranbrook alumnae group last week. Mrs. Morgan D. Douglas, Jr., presided and reports of the recent fashion show and tea were given. Plans were also discussed for an alumnae dance for both Kingswood and Cranbrook schools and the date for the annual Kingswood alumnae luncheon was decided upon at Dec. 22.

Corajoyce Nancy Lane is Married in Evening Rites

Corajoyce Nancy Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Odie Lane of Bloomfield Hills, was escorted to the altar by her father to exchange nuptial vows with Robert Gordon Rausa, son of Mrs. Ernest J. Rausa and the late Mr. Rausa of Lathrup Village, in a double ring ceremony at Mrs. of the Hills on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. Joseph Vance and Dr. W. Glen Harris officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white chiffon velvet, fashioned with a marquise yoke.

A panel of seed pearls and crystals down the front, formed a scroll of flowers and leaves. Her headpiece was of stephanotis and loops of pearls from which hung her veil of illusion. She carried a white chiffon velvet muff with a corsage of white orchids and stephanotis attached.

Mrs. Thomas Petrosky was matron of honor in a deep wine shade of chiffon velvet with matching muff on which were pinned pink orchids and ivy. In her hair she wore a band of chiffon velvet with a pink orchid on the side.

The bridesmaids, Shirley Rausa, sister of the bridegroom and Elise Singer, cousin of the bride, wore fuchsia chiffon velvet gowns and carried matching muffs of chiffon velvet with a green orchid on the side.

Gregory and Gary Witbeck, sons of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Witbeck of Pleasant Ridge were the ring bearers and carried small pillars of white chiffon velvet with each ring attached to the top.

Edward Grosfield, cousin of the bridegroom, was the best man and the ushers were A. V. Witbeck and Charles Lane, a brother of the bride.

Mrs. Lane chose for her daugh-
