Plan Rummage Sale

The St. Peter's Guild of St. James Episcopal church is planning a rummage sale scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 23, from 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and on Friday, Oct. 29, from 9:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Mrs. Tom Reany is general chairman for the event which will be held in the church basement.

One of the best ways to save grain and other foodstuffs is to get rid of rats.

WALNUT LAKE NEWS

By NORINE McKAY
Phone: LONGACRE 5-2375

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boston of Sanaryer entertained Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hasset of Putnam drive at Kingsley Inn Tuesday, Oct. 19. The occasion was the eighth wedding anniversary of the Hasset's.

Walnut Lake Estates, Inc., will hold its last general business meeting of the season Sunday, Oct. 24, at 3 p.m., in the number two club house. The following items are on the agenda: Hal-loween party for the children; a party prior to Thanksgiving; plans regarding amendment to by-laws concerning election of officers and road care. A representative from the county road commission has been invited to be present at this meeting to discuss plans for the improvement of the roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wade of Deering left Tuesday for a few days' vacation in Lexington, Mich. They will visit former Walnut Lake residents Mr. and Mrs. Dick Pickett. Mr. Wade expects to be able to do a little pheasant hunting before his return.

Proud Brownies of Troop 25 displayed their handwork with leaves to their parents Saturday, Oct. 9, when they had a special meeting with Mrs. Larry Teal.

Under her direction the Brownies painted, traced, colored and mounted waxed leaves. John Parkins of Edgewood hwy., assisted Mrs. Martin Wade in the playing of games at Monday's Brownie meeting. Mrs. Parkins is a member of the Troop committee.

Plans are being made by the Walnut Lake Men's club for a costume Halloween dance. It is for members and their wives or girlfriends and is to be held in the clubhouse.

A blue and pink show was held for Mrs. Clayton LaMotte of Lawndale, in the home of Mrs. Ruth Vashay on Edgewood hwy. Mrs. Teal was the hostess and refreshments were served.

Weekend guests of the A. H. Goodwin's, Putnam drive, were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Landwehr of Mt. Pleasant, Mich.

Although October 7 was the eighth birthday of Kay Graber, she had to wait for last Saturday to celebrate due to an unwelcome case of chicken pox. The party had a Halloween air as all attended wearing costumes and masks. The last person to remain unrecognised was Patty Hampton and she received a special gift for this.

Others attending were Sharon Gibson, Sally Hanson, Paul Zimmerman, Mark Whimer, Sandra Amelia Christie and Kay's sister Lorene Claire. Mr. Graber showed cartoon movies.

Dad's of the Sigma Chi's were entertained last weekend at the fraternity house in Ann Arbor. Activities included attending the football game and being fêted at a banquet. Henry Jokela of Putnam drive was the father attending from this community.

A change from afternoon to evening meetings was voted by a majority in the Walnut Lake Women's Club. The first evening meeting will be held Oct. 28, at the school at eight o'clock. Mrs. Joseph West will be the guest speaker and will discuss parliamentary procedure. Mrs. Don Harrison, program chairman, will announce the program plans for the season. The meeting place committee will submit a report.

Kettering Cancer Institute in New York, was house guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. R. T. Duggan of Middlebelt road during the first annual scientific meeting of the new Detroit Institute for Cancer Research.

A collection of autumnal spoons from her aunt, Mrs. Grace Watson of Brookline, Scotland, was received by Mrs. Edward Hechist of Middlebelt road. Among them were many that Mrs. Sechrist's father had contributed to his sister's collection, depicting events in American history. Mrs. Sechrist is carrying on the family hobby of collecting spoons.

Fourteen girls attended the first meeting of Girl Scout Troop 9 Monday. Plans were made and committees appointed for a cook-out and hike for next Monday afternoon at 4:00. Registration of the troop will be made during October. Mrs. Richard King, assistant leader, conducted several games. The friendship circle meeting, "Taps," closed the meeting.

Reorganizing City Basketball League; Seek New Players

The first meeting of all young men interested in playing in the YMCA City Basketball League has been called for 8:00 p.m., Monday, Oct. 26, at Baldwin High School.

Any player interested in joining one of the six teams in the league is invited to attend. Sponsors are asked to contact the 'Y' office by telephone before the meeting takes place.

The 'Y' league will again play on Monday evenings with practice starting Nov. 1, and league play on Nov. 29. New teams appearing for the first time will be Michigan Bell Telephone and Bayley and Caltrider. The Rotary and Exchange Clubs are again sponsoring ex-C. I.'s in the league.

Full information about entry fees and schedules may be obtained from the 'Y' office.
