The thousands of books and magazines donated by people of Birmingham and the surrounding territory made a full house at the Edison Company all last week. Besides the 4,000 books and 1,200 magazines sold, there were toys and games that attracted young people and print and music for specialized interests.

The sale resulted in about $800.00 for the educational activities of the branch for 1948-49. Donations were made to the French Town of San Malo, a project sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Baldwin Library, the new library at Clawson, and the Northern high school in Detroit. All local schools are urged to take advantage of these annual sales.

Are Married Saturday in Grasse Pointe Christ Church

Mrs. Ellen Gallardo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gallardo of Whittier boulevard, Detroit, and Charles Victor Booth, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Booth of Fairfax avenue, exchanged nuptial vows Saturday in Christ Church Grasse Pointe.

The bride was gown in ivory satin (fashioned with a sweetheart neckline that was outlined in seed pearls) a satin tiara, embroidered with seed pearls, held her finger-ring and she carried a bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis and ivy streamers.

Miss Barbara Jean Gallardo, a sister of the bride, served as maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald W. Bar, Miss Jean McCombs Wood, Barbara Gardella and Patricia Stinson. They were all dressed in Ansonia Beauty faille with puff backs and matching velvet Mary Stuart hats. In their arms they carried pink chrysanthemums with ivy streamers.

Mr. Booth acted as his son's best man and the ushers were Robert Beers, a brother, MacAllister Booth, Ralph Sams, John Thomas, John Hanna and Richard Pope.

Mrs. Gallardo chose a pale blue crepe dress with matching maline hat and a purple orchid corsage for the occasion. Mrs. Booth was dressed in sheer pink crepe with a headpiece of a spray of pink orchids.

Following the reception at the Grasse Pointe Yacht Club, the couple left on a trip to northern Michigan. For the first step of the journey, the new Mrs. Booth selected a suit of beige doeklin with brown accessories.

Upon their return, they will make their home in the Chatsworth apartments, Detroit.
