Nancy Dalee Becomes Bride of Byron Ellis

Before a background of evergreens and chrysanthemums, Miss Nancy Pauline Dalee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dalee of Pilgrim road and Byron Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Byron Ellis of Oakland avenue, were united in marriage at a four o'clock ceremony in the First Methodist Church Saturday. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Arnold F. Runkel with musical selections by Victor Ulrich.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin cut with a chantilly lace edged sweetheart neckline. The hips were accented by panniers, the sleeves were long and came to traditional points at the wrists and the full skirt extended into a train. Her fingertip veil was held in a crown of orange blossoms and seed pearls and her bridal bouquet was made up of white roses and stephanotis.

As maid of honor, Miss Janice Dalee, a sister of the bride, was dressed in moss green taffeta, the fitted bodice of which was trimmed in pointed Venice lace. She wore full length gold gauntlets and a matching halo hat. In her arms was a bouquet of deep russet mums and bittersweet.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. George A.

Mrs. Byron E. Ellis

William, Jr. of Lakeview, Mich., a sister of the bride, and Mrs. William W. Dalee of Detroit were in gowns similar to the honor maid's. They carried bouquets of autumn shade mums and bittersweet.

A brother of the bridegroom, William Ellis of Birmingham was the best man and the groom was escorted by Darwood Gamble of Birmingham; James Gilchrist of Chicago; Frank Kane of San Aristo and William Dalee of Detroit, a brother of the bride.

For her daughter's ceremony, Mrs. Dalee chose a royal blue, lace trimmed street length dress and a pink, feathered hat. On her shoulder was a corsage of deep pink tinted gardenias. Mrs. Ellis was dressed in a smoke grey wool crepe with a gray feathered hat and pale pink gardenias.

Following the reception held at Rotunda Inn, the couple left on a short trip to Canada. For her going away suit the new Mrs. Ellis wore a three piece scarlet gingham suit with black accessories and the white roses from her bridal bouquet.

Upon their return, they will live in East Lansing where he is attending Michigan State College.
