The C. Hallocks Celebrate Their Golden Wedding

On Saturday, Oct. 23, about 75 guests gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Hallock of Ann street to help them celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. The party was hosted by Miss Dena Hallock and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hallock. Due to the recent illness of Mrs. Hallock only relatives and a few close friends of the couple attended the affair.

An especially honored guest was Mrs. Hallock's cousin, Mrs. Clara Wilson of Lapeer who will celebrate her 91st birthday Oct. 30. Other guests were present from Jackson, Ann Arbor, Milford, Rochester, Detroit, Royal Oak, and Pontiac.

Assisting at the affair were several nieces of the honorees, Mrs. Ned Gowing of Highland Park, Mrs. Cecil Hepler of Detroit, Mrs. Thomas Hallock of Royal Oak, Mrs. Roscoe Hallock, Miss Peg Hallock, and Mrs. Sidney Miller of Birmingham. During the afternoon Mrs. John Duffy of Birmingham; Mrs. A. R. Hallock of Royal Oak and Mrs. D. C. Gowing of Highland Park presided at the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Hallock were married on October 26, 1898, at Cass City, Mich., and have made their home in Birmingham since June, 1910.

At 25th Anniversary Dinner

Shown left to right at the Birmingham Business Women's Club 25th anniversary dinner held in the Community House last week are Jane Hall, Rep. Olson, Audrey Kemp, President Jane Wootton and Virginia Brennan. The two men in back are Bob Stuart and Douglas Hatrick.

Approximately 116 people attended the Thursday evening anniversary banquet of the Birmingham Business Women's Club in the Community House. This was the first occasion that husbands and friends were invited to any of the organization's activities.

Three new honorary members were present Mary Griffith who came from Ohio for the affair and Mrs. W. D. Thompson and Mrs. D. W. Symonds, both of Birmingham. They were presented with corages by the group's president, Jane Wootton.

Miss Wootton welcomed the guests and Mrs. Myrtle Bird presented the club's history to the gathering.

Members of the club then gave their president a waffle iron as a gift in appreciation of her work with the club.

Cider and doughnuts will be served and the fathers of Quarton students will have the opportunity to become acquainted with each other.

Localites Hear Emily Green Balch

Emily Green Balch, who received the Nobel Peace Prize in 1946 (co-winner with Dr. John Mott of the YMCA) was introduced to members of the Detroit branch of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom by Mrs. George Hendrie of Willet street at a tea held in Miss Balch's honor at the downtown YMCA on Friday, Oct. 27. Miss Balch, now 81 despite the frailty of her being brought a challenge to the members of WIL by the vigor and encouragement of her ideas.

"I do not think there will be a third world war, and I do not think the atom bomb will ever be used again," Miss Balch told her astounded listeners.

Other Birmingham members of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom who traveled to Detroit to hear Miss Balch speak on "Women and the United Nations" were Mrs. Angus McLean, Mrs. J. N. Hadjisky, Mrs. Caroline Burlingame and Mrs. Harold Chalk.
