Shallberg-Smith Vows Repeated

Miss Barbara Ruth Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Park H. Smith of Chesterfield road and Charles E. Shallberg, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Shallberg of Chestnut avenue, were united in marriage recently at a double ring ceremony performed in the First Methodist Church by the Rev. Arnold F. Runkel.

Bouquets of white chrysanthemums and palms handed the altar for the candlelight service which was witnessed by 225 relatives and friends.

For her marriage, the bride was gowned in white satin with a seed pearl neck yoke trim and a train which fell from the full skirt. Her halo headpiece held her fingertip veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of baby white mums and white daisies.

Elaine Jones acted as maid of honor and Marilyn Kemp and Wanda Olin were the bridesmaids. Miss Jones was dressed in dusty green satin and the other attendants were in rose satin.

Charles Martin was best man and the guests were seated by Robert Koonst, William and Richard Shallberg, brothers of the bridegroom and Wallace Smith, a brother of the bride.

The reception was held in the church parlor immediately following the service. Mrs. Smith was in pink brown and Mrs. Shallberg wore purple.

For her going away outfit, the new Mrs. Shallberg chose a gray dressmaker suit and green accessories.

After a two weeks' wedding trip, they will be at home on West Maple.

"Smarter Than Smart"

The New Agnew Military Insignia Jewelry

INCREASINGLY seen in the East and South; now available to you at LaBelles. Likely you've already seen it in Harper's Bazaar, Vogue, Mademoiselle, Seventeen or Glamour.

This newest of new jewelry is made from authentic, strikingly designed military insignia from European Regiments, and from order pins and buckles of the Civil War Infantry. The European insignia are imported through an arrangement with the government in the form of basic dies and then plated, touched with enamel and converted into jewelry over here.

There are scatter pins, pendants, button earrings, buckles strung on ribbons as medallions, and leather belts made up with insignia buckles. One outstanding belt even has an interchangeable belt—thus you may have a coral belt one day—a yellow, navy or brown belt other days.

The pins you simply must see them; they are beautiful! Adaptable to dresses, sweaters, coats, hats, bags—and we probably don't have to suggest how smart they are on berets.
