

Technical Staff Is Named for Dunstan's Guild Production

St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook has selected the technical staff for its forthcoming production of Philip Barry's comedy, "The Animal Kingdom". The play will be staged at the Guild Playhouse in the Cranbrook Pavilion on Lone Pine road, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 15 and 16 and 22 and 23.

The following will assist Miss Eunice Dinsette, who is directing the play: Mrs. Roderick H. McKnight, assistant director; Mrs. Campbell Harvey, lines; Mrs. William G. Crawford and Mrs. Mary Leitch, properties; Mrs. Frederic C. Few, costumes and Mrs. Sheldon R. Noble, make-up.

The scenic crew, headed by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hintzmeister, assisted by Thomas Martin and Jack Blanchard. Roy Leitch will be stage manager for the production.

Mrs. Lewis Keenan is in charge of tickets, and Miss Nancy Leach is handling the lobby decoration.

Working on AAUW Book Sale Preparations

the sale where there will be boys to handle the donations.

Every Type of Book

As in the years past, books of every type, fiction and non-fiction, light reading and books suitable for research will be found on the counters. The variety in the range of titles and authors will enable a reader to pick up books whose popularity has made them scarce items. There will be an excellent opportunity here to begin that home library.

There will be textbooks and sets of educational books which will interest the younger generation. Photograph records, magazines, picture frames, games and patterns will be for sale at this time also.

The proceeds of this sale are turned to national, international and local educational purposes such as for fellowships and scholarships, as well as general educational activities. Many study groups are conducted by the organization which the public is invited to join.

... concerning your Gift to the Bride

THE supreme happiness, deservedly hers on her Wedding Day, demands more than usual thoughtfulness on the part of those who mark the occasion with their Gifts.

Your Gifts, if chosen for such attributes as beauty, usefulness and distinctively fine quality—together with a ne'er-grow-old character—will certainly add to her joy, and be remembered with genuine satisfaction long after the immediate occasion.

That is the kind of Gift to the Bride one finds at LaBelles, where attention to beautiful wrapping plays its part too—for your Gift is wedding-wrapped so beautifully that it becomes successful from the moment it is glimpsed.
