Howard-Kurth Vows Spoken in Evening Rites

The altar of the English Lutheran Church of the Redeemer was banked with white gladioli, ferns and candelabra for the nuptial rites of Miss Marguerite Gertrude Kurth and Robert Deane Howard which took place Saturday evening.

The Rev. Theodore Wuggasser officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Erich Kurth of North Worth are the bride's parents and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Howard of Lathrup Village.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in ice blue satin cut along princess lines with two panels of hand embroidered seed pearls and pearls down the front. Her bodice was fitted and the long pointed sleeves were edged with fine fingertip veil which was bordered with seed pearls and held by a bridled satin Dutch sash trimmed with rose point lace.

Miss Nancy Ohlmaecher of Detroit acted as maid of honor in a gold taffeta dress and pearls on a round neckline, cap sleeves and a fitted bodice. The dress was highlighted by a three tiered skirt over a hoop. She wore a matching hat and carried a cascade of yellow gladioli.

As bridesmaids, the Misses Susie Woodhill of Birmingham; Trudy Kurth, a sister of the bride, also of Birmingham and Mary Howard Tuilmes of Lathrup wore aqua taffeta fashioned alike in the same lines as the honor maid's with the bride wore a gown of hand blocked white brocaded satin of colonial design with a basque waistline featuring a full circular pleat, a high round collar and pointed leg o' mutton sleeves. Her hair was of modern impetuous lace and she carried with a white prayer book adorned with a white orchid.

Mrs. George A. Teck of Atlanta, Ga., was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were the Misses Revere Wilkinson and Gloria J. Patton. The matron of honor was dressed in flamingo and the bridesmaids in turquoise nylon faille. Their dresses were fashioned with bertha collars giving an off the shoulder effect and hooped skirts. Mrs. Teck carried a cascade bouquet of cream gladioli and the other attendants carried cascades of pink gladioli and pink roses.

Lucy and Wangberg attended his son as best man and the guests were seated by Frank and Harold Wangberg, brothers of the bridegroom from Birmingham.

Mrs. Teck chose a pine green dress with black accessories for her daughter's rites and Mrs. Wangberg was dressed in brown with matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of gladioli and sweetheart roses.

Following the reception held in the church parlor, the newlyweds left on a wedding trip. Upon their return they will make their home in Mt. Pleasant where both will continue their studies at Central Michigan College.
