Church Council Elects Officers For Coming Year

The annual organizational meeting of the Birmingham Council of Churches was held Tuesday, Sept. 14 at the Community House. The Rev. Arnold Runkel, president of the group was in the chair. After the usual luncheon and fellowship period, a business session was held. Among the other important items on the agenda was the election of officers for 1948-49.

The following officers were elected by unanimous vote: president, the Rev. Harold E. Town, vice-president, the Rev. Emil Knott and secretary-treasurer, Edwin F. Kirbert.

In the course of the meeting, a report was made on plans for the observance of the Anniversary of the Protestant Reformation. A community-wide service of worship will be sponsored by the Council of Churches to be held on Sunday evening, Nov. 7, at the First Baptist Church.

The Council announces it has secured the services of the distinguished radio preacher, Dr. Paul Scheerer of New York, for this significant occasion. All Protestant churches of the community will cooperate in the service.

There were reports from various committees of the Council, all of them indicating continued growth and effectiveness in the cooperative program of the churches. The Council expressed its appreciation to the retiring officers for their service.

The officers who relinquished their posts were the Rev. Arnold Runkel, former president, the Rev. Glen Harris, former vice-president and the Rev. Emil Knott, former secretary-treasurer. The next meeting of the Council is scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 12, at the Community House.

Named to Board of Community House

GIRL SCOUTS

It's September. It's schooltime. It's Girl Scout Time! The calendar is full of dates for forthcoming Scout activities and in order to start the fall season with full knowledge of these important dates, here's a few to mark down for your special attention:

Training Program Opens Mrs. James Abbott, Training Chairman, and her committee held a breakfast meeting at the home of council president Mrs. R. W. Reilly on Sept. 8 and completed final arrangements for the fall training course for leaders. The Brownie leadership training dates are Sept. 14, 17 and 21, starting at 9:30 a.m. and running two hours each day. Mrs. Andrew Watson, Brownie leader of long standing, and her new Brownie co-worker, Mrs. Robert D. Rinehart, will direct the training course. Training for leaders of intermediate troops will be given on Sept. 17, 20 and 22, starting at 9:30 a.m. at the Community House and continuing two hours. Mrs. John P. St. Clair, who like Mrs. Rinehart, is a newcomer to Birmingham, will direct the intermediate training course. While new in town, Mrs. St. Clair is an old hand at Girl Scouting, having been a troop leader, commissioner and member of the Regional Board in South Dakota.

Homecoming Scheduled Sept. 24 is the date of the annual Homecoming for adult Girl Scout leaders. It will open with a meeting of the Birmingham Girl Scout Council at 10 a.m. at the Community House and all council members will want to attend. Luncheon will follow at noon. The afternoon, from 1 to 3 p.m., will be utilized for training. Leaders of fifth grade troops will have Mrs. Carl Meyer as their trainer and consultant; Mrs. Cassius Miller will give training to all sixth grade leaders; and Mrs. Frank Hardy will train seventh and eighth grade leaders. A special feature of this two hour training course will be training for council members given by Mrs. John P. St. Clair.

With such intensive training courses offered, every leader in Girl Scouting will find the answer to her questions, unlimited tricks to tuck up her sleeve to insure satisfaction and success in her winter's work.
