At 7:00, a youth fellowship lay-rd will be limited to members of the Fellowship and a friend. There will be a small charge. Cars will leave from the Kirk on the half hour. After the ride, light refreshments will be served by the committee in charge, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thomas, two of the advisors, will accompany the group.

That same evening will see the inauguration of the first Youth Fellowship group at the Kirk. "Self-lead" service will be conducted by young people at 6:30 p.m. and the group will be loved by a social hour on the grounds.

Pierce PTA Will Have First Meeting of Year Sept. 23
W. P. Kennedy, program chairman for the Pierce school PTA announces that the organization will hold its first meeting on Thursday, Sept. 23.

Russell M. Richardson, the new president, will preside at a short business meeting and Mr. Peterson, the school principal will introduce the new teachers and welcome the parents of children who have transferred to Pierce this year from other schools and those parents who have children just starting.

The main part of the program will be devoted to a sound film called "Girl Scouting in the Community" and to talks by Mrs. W. M. Milligan and Mrs. Cassius Miller which will supplement the film. Mrs. Milligan and Mrs. Miller are well qualified to speak on this subject as they are both leaders in Girl Scout work in Birmingham.
