Warren Cushing to Speak Tonight at MOMS Club Meeting

At 8:00 p.m. this evening in the Community House, members of the MOMS Club will gather to hear Warren A. Cushing, director of the Veterans' Administration Hospital, "Dearborn". This meeting is open to the public.

Cushing has had 13 years of experience as a high school principal and athletic director. He was in the Navy four years and commanded four different ships during his active service.

From there he came directly to the Veterans' Hospital in Dearborn as chief of special services division and has been in that capacity for the past two years. Under his supervision have been the planities, libraries, canteen, recreation and entertainment and sports activities as well as public relations work.

This will be the opportunity for the citizens to get acquainted with the MOMS Club is endeavoring to do and how their efforts are directed along the needs of the veterans.

On Sept. 18 this coming Saturday, the MOMS are having their annual tag day. The money that is donated on this day will be used to purchase the articles they need, want or that can help keep them on the road to recovery.

Mrs. E. S. Snyder of the MOMS Club says that show how much it appreciates living in a land still free and made free by the efforts of those boys and men who are now working their way back to health at Dearborn Hospital.

Mr. Paul Heinsohn

of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Heinsohn of South Bates street repeated their vows before Rev. Dwight S. Large in the First Methodist Church of Kalamazoo amidst a setting of baskets of white and yellow gladioli, palms and carnations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white marquisette over satin. Fashioned with a round high neckline, the dress was cut with a fitted bodice, long traditional pointed sleeves, and a full skirt highlighted with a lace panel. Her fingertip silk illusion veil was trimmed with lace and was held by a tiara studded with brilliant cut diamonds. The bridal bouquet was made up of white gladioli and mums.

Marion French of Kalamazoo served as her sister's maid of honor in a yellow marquisette dress styled with a sweetheart neckline, a long bodice and a gathered skirt. She wore a band of flowers in her hair and carried a colonial bouquet of mixed pastel colored flowers.

Mrs. Helen Davidson and Mrs. Betty Stearns, both of Lansing, were the bridesmaids in pale blue marquisette gowns cut along the same lines as the honor maid's. They also wore bands of flowers in their hair and carried bouquets of pastel colored flowers.

Alford Peabody of Birmingham acted as the best man and setting the guests were Howard Goepfert of Pontiac; Paul Rothman of Detroit; Edward Goepfert of Lakewood and Gordon French, brother of the bride, of Kalamazoo.

For her daughter's rites Mrs. French chose a grey gown with green accessories and a yellow rose corsage. For contrast, Mrs. Heinsohn was dressed in green with grey accessories. Her corsage was made up of yellow roses also.

Following a reception in the church parlors, the young couple left on a wedding trip to northern Michigan. For the first step of the trip the new Mrs. Heinsohn selected a dark green suit with black accessories and a white corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Heinsohn will make their home in Lansing where he will complete his senior year at Michigan State College.

Women Take Honors in Apple Pie Baking Contest at Lathrup

Dad, who too frequently invades the kitchen and claims he can bake that pie or mix the dough for those rolls better than Mother can, was conspicuous for his absence at the recent apple pie contest held out in Lathrup school. Among 22 entries, there wasn't a single man who was brave enough to prove himself the apple pie king in his family.

Best, Bernice Reid, 29285 Southfield, took first prize for her succulent entry. Mrs. Richard Klinger, 25509 Larkin and Mrs. Grace Fisher, 28393 Wellington of Franklin Village came in second and third in the judges' estimation. These three winners are now eligible to compete in the county apple pie baking contest which will be held Sept. 17 in Pontiac.

Contestants ranged from 19 years of age to 80 years of age, it was reported.

The affair was sponsored by the Southfield Kiwanis Club in connection with the County Agricultural Extension Service.
