Mary Lou Dunn and Jack M. Deetz Repeat Their Vows in Home Ceremony

Before the fireplace in the living room of her parents' home, Miss Mary Lou Dunn was united in marriage to Jack Melvin Deetz Saturday in an afternoon ceremony. The couple, the daughter of a dentist and the son of a finger tip veil and she carried a satin bound bouquet of white gladioli with a rose bud in each bloom.

As matron of honor, Mrs. David Cole of Bad Axe was given an off-shoulder yellow eyelid-embroidered dress fashioned with a full, bouffant skirt. Her flowers were made up of a cascade of rust colored gladioli with tiny blue roses placed in each bloom tied with a yellow satin ribbon. The bridesmaid, Miss Barbara Bonkens of Grand Rapids wore a blue colored eyelid gown fashioned along the same lines as the matron of honor's and she carried yellow gladioli with little tullestam buds in each bloom. Her flowers were bound together with coral satin ribbon.

James Thomas, Jr., of Saginaw served as best man while Thomas Farrugia of Detroit and David Cole of Bad Axe seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dunn chose a turquoise crepe floor length gown with long tight sleeves and heavy lace trim at the square neckline. She wore a hair bandeau of tullestam rose buds. Mrs. Deetz wore an Alice blue crepe floor length gown with a lace yoke. Her corsage was of pink roses.

A large green tent was placed in the yard under which a colonial table, covered with Venetian lace cloth, held the huge wedding cake. Dinner was served to 100 guests following the ceremony and Harold Grigg played the accordion for dancing on the terrace after the dinner hour.

For the first step of a wedding trip up north, the new Mrs. Deetz selected a turquoise going away suit with a brown crepe and lace blouse, a corn shade topper and a brown hat and accessories. Flowers from her bouquet were chosen as her corsage. Upon their return they will make their home in Saginaw.

Out of town guests for the event were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Deetz of Saginaw; Mrs. Theresa McCauley of Bay City; Mr. Lenora Paul of Bay City; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Phillips of Bad Axe; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Biederman of Woodville, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Vern Gullifer of Saginaw; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dougherty of Bay City; Miss Marian Campbell of Gaylord, Mich.; Mrs. Nina Wheatley of St. Charles, Mich.; Mrs. Augusta Wendt of Saginaw; Mrs. Emma Gullifer of Bay City; Mrs. Frieda Hollingsworth of Saginaw; Mr. Joseph Deetz of Flint; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dengler of Saginaw; and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Auger of Flint.

Mrs. Jack M. Deetz

of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Clark Dunn of Golden Gate drive and the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Deetz of Saginaw, repeated their vows before Dr. John D. Rose of Lathrup Village. Miss Vera Richardson played the solo vox preceding and during the ceremony.

In a gown of white marquisette, the bride was given in marriage by her brother, Dr. Lewis Edgar Dunn of Berkeley. The bridal gown was fashioned with a high neckline trimmed in seed pearls, long, tight sleeves which were also edged with seed pearls at the cuff, a delicate lace bertha and long bouffant skirt which fell into a train that was laced with lace. A bonnet of English net held her

Are Married in Holy Name Church Rites Saturday Afternoon

Robert Lewis Shaffner, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Laurence Shaffner of Greenwood avenue, claimed Miss Ewendolyn Ann Flynn as his bride in a one o'clock ceremony at Holy Name Church Saturday. The Rev. J. J. Kves officiated.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo James Flynn of Pierce street, was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, William Bronsing. For her rites she chose an ivory satin gown of traditional design with a sweetheart neckline, a fitted bodice and pointed sleeves and a full skirt. A lace cap held her shoulder length veil and she carried a cascade of small gardenias. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

Mrs. William Bronsing was her sister's only attendant in a character embroidered organza dress fashioned with a round, gathered yoke, short puffed sleeves and a bouffant skirt. She wore a headband of yellow mums in her hair and carried a bouquet of matching flowers.

William L. Shaffner, Jr., acted as his brother's best man and seating the guests were Leo Daly, John Bones, Jack McBride and William Kinley, all of Birmingham.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Flynn chose a crepe gown of deep mauve highlighted with bead trimmings. Her hat was of matching aqua colored feathers and she wore a corsage of stunner carnations and rosebuds pinned to her shoulder. Mrs. Shaffner selected a brown suit with brown accessories and wore a green orchid corsage.

As the young couple left the wedding breakfast which was held at Devon Gables, the new Mrs. Shaffner was wearing a brown suit. Upon their return from a wedding trip to northern Michigan, they will make their home at Swarthmore College where Mr. Shaffner is a student.
