MOMS Club to Hear Geraldine Uppleger Becomes Bride of Ernest Meussen
Warren A. Cushing

An executive board meeting of the MOMS Club held Monday night at the home of the organization's president, Mrs. Norman Porter of Pierce street. At this time a notice of the first program and meeting was given.

Warren A. Cushing, business manager of the Dearborn Veterans' Hospital, will speak to the group about the needs and the management of the hospital. This first fall regular meeting of the club will be held on Thursday, Sept. 16, at 8:00 p.m. in the Community House and everyone is urged to attend. This a representative of the MOMS said, would be an excellent opportunity for people to learn exactly what the MOMS Club is endeavoring to do and how they use their money, in answer to the veterans' needs.

Mrs. H. H. Richardson, general chairman of the MOMS tag day program, will give a complete report of her plans for the Sept. 18 tag day sale. All members of the club are urged to turn out and help this cause and are asked to give their names as volunteers to Mrs. Richardson. The hours of the sale will be from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

The MOMS have been busy at the hospital all summer and their calls have been noticeably increased; therefore they need even more cooperation than ever.

Mrs. R. Johnstone has lined up some excellent programs for the year and they will be announced soon.

Geraldine Uppleger Becomes Bride of Ernest Meussen

In an evening ceremony at the First Methodist Church Saturday, Miss Geraldine Helen Uppleger became the bride of Ernest Meussen. The young couple repeated their vows before the Rev. Robert Lawson in a setting of white gladioli, palms and carnations. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin E. Uppleger of Emmons avenue and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. Simon Meussen of Holland, Mich.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in ivory slipper satin fashioned of a colonial motif. The neckline was of illusion with a chantly lace bertha. On her head was a matching lace cap which held her finger-ring. She carried a colonial bridal bouquet of stephanotis and white roses.

A sister, Miss Lois Uppleger acted as maid of honor and another sister, Gwendolyn was the bridesmaid. They wore identical white tulle dresses with sheer organza fingerless gloves. Their flowers were nosegays of pastel colors and they wore matching headbands in their hair.

John D. French came from Holland to be the best man and Gordon Meussen of Holland and Harry Barkema of Lansing acted as the ushers.

Marguerite Baker sang "Through the Years," "Because and "The Lord's Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Uppleger wore a powder blue evening-length dress accented by russet rose gloves and a rose corsage.

Mrs. Jay Geering, an aunt of the bridegroom from Owosso, wore a chartruese dinner dress and a rose corsage. The reception was held at the church. Mrs. James Hodges of Royal Oak cut the bride's cake and presiding at the tables were Miss Peggy Friska and Miss Connie Hinga of Holland, Mrs. John D. French, Jr., and Miss Nell Wakefield.

As the young couple left for a trip up north, the new Mrs. Meussen was wearing a navy faille suit with a pink hat and matching gloves. A corsage of pink gardenias was pinned to her shoulder.

They will make their home in Holland where Mr. Meussen will complete his studies at Hope College and Mrs. Meussen will teach this fall.

The bridesmaids were Phyllis Peterson, who wore a corsage of Capuc, Mich., who wore orchid tulle and Lenore Knowles of Pontiac, in apple green tulle. They carried bouquets of feather gladioli. All attendants wore headbands of gladioli to match their bouquets.
