Speed-Landis Vows Read at Kirk in the Hills Church

Miss Patricia Landis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Landis of Kimberley road and Robert Willis Speed, son of Mr. and Mrs.

an afternoon ceremony at Kirk in the Hills on Sept. 1. The bride and candelabra framed the altar for the single ring rites.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in Victorian styled off-white Duchess satin. The gown was cut with a high neckline and draped polonaise hipsline which formed a bustle in the back. The skirt fell into a long circular train from the bustle. A halo of satin folds held her finger tip allusion veil and her bridal bouquet was of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert Speed

Lorenzo D. Speed of Detroit and Ontario, repeated their vows before the Rev. Joseph A. Vance in

A sister of the groom from Washington, D. C., Miss Elizabeth Speed, acted as maid of honor in a turquoise moire tulle gown with a matching wide brimmed hat. Her dress was fashioned after the style of the bride's with a bustle and polonaise edged in fluting. She carried a flat round bouquet of rhabrum lilies.
Dr. Michael Lau, a cousin of the bridegroom from Bronxville, N. Y., acted as best man and John Clippert of Detroit and George Landis, a brother of the bride seated the guests.
For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Landis chose a floor length grey crepe dress with gold accents. Her hat was of grey and bronzed tipped ostrich plumes and her accessories were bronze. A purple orchid was pinned to her purse.
Mrs. Speed wore a street length crepe dress of powder blue with silver accessories and a hat of powder blue madras. Her corsage was made up of purple orchids.

The reception was held at Rounting Inn, Pine Lake, immediately following the ceremony.
For the first step of the trip to Quebec, the new Mrs. Speed selected a rust colored gingham suit with brown lizard accessories and a brown hat. The young couple will make their home in Detroit upon their return.

Baskets of white flowers, palms and candelabra framed the altar as the bride was escorted down the candlelit aisle by her father. Her gown was of white slipper satin fashioned with a peter pan collar, long traditional pointed sleeves delicately trimmed with seed pearls and full, bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil, edged with lace, was held by a sweet heart tiara which was also trimmed with lace. The bridal bouquet was made up of white roses.

Here Are the Rules for the Apple Pie Contest on Sept. 10

The rules and regulations for the apple pie contest, which is being sponsored by the Southfield Kiwanis club and which will be held on Sept. 10 at the Lathrup village school have been announced.
Three judges will participate in each local contest and a uniform score card is to be used in all contests, local and county. There are no age restrictions so that Mother and Dad and young sister or brother are all eligible.

Rules for entering are that each contestant can furnish only one pie and the pie should have an over-all diameter of about 8 1/2 inches and a depth of 1 1/2 inches, standard pie tin size. Each pie should have two crusts. The pie should be baked when submitted to the judges and each pie should be marked in the following manner: using a 3 x 4 paper, type or print name, address, age and community represented.
Each contestant should submit to the judges a copy of his or her recipe on regular size paper, 8 1/2 x 11, with name and address on it at the time of entering the contest.
The apple pie is a made social which will follow after the judging of the best pie will be a highlight of the event. This will also be held in the school at Lathrup Village.

Mrs. Kenneth Burnett

at the rites. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Main of Fairview avenue and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Burnett of Hanna street.

Young Gail Allen of Wampum, Pa., as flower girl, preceded the bridal procession down to the altar in a pink taffeta dress. She was wearing flowers in her hair to match her colonial bouquet. Mrs. Hartley Allen of Wampum served as matron of honor in a lilac taffeta dress. She wore a wreath of flowers in her hair and carried a matching colonial bouquet. The bridesmaids, Miss Charlene Gates of Jackson, Mich.; Miss Marjorie Potts of Huntington Woods and Miss Shirley Burnett of Birmingham were gowned in green taffeta. They had flowers in their hair and carried colonial bouquets.

Donald Burnett of Kalamazoo acted as his brother's best man and seating the guests were Byron Watt, Richard Kadell, Peter Mann and Derrick Bolton, all of Birmingham.
Floyd Franklin song "Because" and "Let's Pray" and Stanley Rosso presided at the organ.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Main chose a turquoise dress with white accessories and a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Burnett wore a fuchsia gown with white gloves and a white corsage.
The reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

As Mr. and Mrs. Burnett left on a wedding trip up north, the bride was wearing a green gingham going away suit. Upon their return they will make their home at 908 Ann street.
