Notices from the Kirk in the Hills

At 5:00 p.m., the formal turning of the first spadeful of earth for the Cathedral Church is scheduled for this afternoon following the Vesper Service. Those participating in the ceremony are Colonel Edwin S. George, the donor; Mr. J. Nelson Fyfe, chairman of the church extension committee of the Presbytery of Detroit; Mr. Charles Meagher, a member of the Session of the Kirk; and Dr. Joseph A. Vance, the interim pastor of the Kirk. A special number will be sung by the quartet.

On Wednesday, Sept. 8, at 7:30 p.m., the session meeting will be held in the library of the Kirk and on Thursday, Sept. 9, at 7:30 p.m. is the monthly meeting of the Women's Association in the Ladies' Parlor.

On Sunday, Sept. 12, at 8:30 p.m. there will be a buffet supper and meeting for teachers of the church school, at the Birmingham Presbyterian Church.

The services at Kirk in the Hills Sunday, Sept. 5 will see the return of Mr. Robert Bates, the organist and the members of the quartet. Mrs. Lillian Novak, Miss Phoebe Campbell, Mr. Robert Stewart and Mr. William Vander Ven after a brief summer vacation.

The fall session of the Kirk in the Hills church school is scheduled for Sunday morning, Sept. 19. At 10:00 a.m. there will be the following classes held: Mixed adult Bible class taught by the minister; senior boys, Mr. William Pelton; teacher; senior and intermediate girls, Mrs. L. A. Bechtel, teacher; intermediate boys, Mr. Donald Harrison, teacher; and a nursery class for small children of members of the Bible class. During the morning service, the nursery, kindergarten, primary and junior children will hold their classes. New enrollments can be made on that date or earlier, in the Church Office.

A Fall Fashion Show is being planned for the afternoon of Sept. 15 by members of the Women's Association of Kirk in the Hills. There will be a display of some of the latest fall fashions. Tea will be served by members of the association. Mrs. John Hammond is general chairman.

Duane Wuggazer

Duane Wuggazer, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Theodore Wuggazer, Jr., of Lincoln avenue leaves for Ft. Wayne, Ind., next week to become a student in the high school department of Concordia College.

He will begin a 12 year period of training for the Lutheran ministry, thus following a family tradition that has already extended through three generations.

His father, grandfather, and great-grandfather as well as several uncles and other relatives have all served as ministers in the Lutheran Church. His father has been pastor of the Church of the Redeemer on West Maple avenue for the past seventeen years.

Returns to Pulpit of First Baptist Church on Sept. 5

On Sunday, Sept. 5, the Rev. Emil Kontz, pastor of the First Baptist Church will again occupy the pulpit. Mr. Kontz and his family have been vacationing in Los Angeles, Calif., during the month of August. He reported a pleasant trip west and a restful visit on the coast.

The sermon subject for the morning worship service at 11 a.m. is "Keepers or Brothers?" It is based upon the biblical question, "Am I my brother's keeper?" The Sunday indicated is widely observed throughout the land as "Labor Sunday". The sermon will be in keeping with the occasion.

Following the service, there will be distributed copies of the leaflet, entitled "Labor Sunday Message". This leaflet has for many years been prepared and widely publicized by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. It is a timely and straight-forward statement of the Christian viewpoint in the field of economics as they refer to the
