Annual election of Walnut Lake Men's Club officers will be held tomorrow in their club room. A general cleanup has been in progress for the past few weeks and a surprise is in store for all members not having attended for some time. Free refreshments will be served. The meeting will start at 9 p.m.

The Men's Club will continue to sponsor the Boy Scout Troop of Walnut Lake.

An important meeting of the owners of Subdivision 1 will be held at the clubhouse this Sunday at 11 a.m. Remodelling of the clubhouse will be discussed.

Weather permitting, many of the members are planning on having breakfast in the park at 10 p.m.

The Walnut Lake Women's Club will hold its first fall meeting at the subdivision one clubhouse today, 1:30 p.m. A surprise program has been planned and refreshments will be served. Enrollments in the following activities will be made: gardening, contract bridge, sewing, ceramics and card parties. Members are urged to invite a neighbor to be their guest for the afternoon.

Plans are being made for the coming meeting of the Finnish American club, to be held Thursday, September 23.

A children's Halloween party is planned by the Walnut Lake Estates, Inc. A committee meeting will be held at the home of Louise T. Knoke on Putnam drive, October 4.

Representatives from the Walnut Lake area will attend the Girl Scout Homecoming and contest meeting tomorrow at the Birmingham Community house.

September 20 was the thirtieth birthday of Helen Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford F. Williams of Edgewood Blvd. The occasion was celebrated by a few of Helen's friends in her home that evening. Guests were Betty Nyberg, Beverly Lewis, Nancy Beuthien, Gail and Judy Sundstrom. Friends of the family were also present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Thomson and their two children Larry and Charles, 11 and 7 respectively, are newcomers to this community and reside at 5491 Putnam drive. The Thomsons moved to Detroit from Kansas City 3 years ago and now to Walnut Lake. Mr. Thomson is associated with Transportation Advertising Company as a salesman and has been with the firm for eleven years.

A birthday party was held for Susie Kemp after school last Monday in her home on Putnam drive. Schoolmates attending the party were Leslie Stevens, Karen Overgard, Karen Maddox, Pam Perkins, Judy Sundstrom, Penny King, Sybil Hampton, Sally Hanson and Sharon McKay. Susie is the daughter of Mrs. Doreen Kemp.

New owners of the Bertram home at 2166 Wycliffe are Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Fitzgerald and their two children, Ann Lindsay, 10 and Susan Scott, who will be one year old in October.

The Fitzgeralds have just returned from the Orient where Mr. Fitzgerald was a major in the Signal Corps. He was in the Army for 26 years, the last three being spent on Okinawa. He built a radio station there which was the islands only person outside contact. Mrs. Fitzgerald and the children spent the past two years there, Susan being born on Okinawa while Ann was born in Panama. Mr. Fitzgerald is engaged with Bendix in their research laboratories in Detroit and is planning to build an amateur radio station here in his new home.

Junior Big met with the members of the executive board of the Walnut Lake PTA Friday evening. Officers for the year were elected. The new president is Norman Wilson; vice-president, Jack Wallace; treasurer, Joan Carey; and secretary, Patty Kemp. Members of the planning committee are Norma Wilson, Barbara Wilson and Joan Carey.

The club has been divided into two groups, one for members in grades 4 through 8, the other in grades 9 through 12. These groups will meet alternate Friday nights. The younger members will meet tomorrow with the president of the PTA, Mrs. W. E. Kendall, to organize and elect officers.

Junior Big is sponsored by the PTA and the members of the executive board will each, take a turn being responsible for a meeting.

Edson Stevens flew to Martha's Vineyard, Mass., on Friday to visit his father.

Mrs. Lynn W. Crossman, Jr. and her daughter will be guests at the Stevens home on Walnut Lake road this weekend. Mrs. Crossman is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Stevens.

Jon Overgard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Overgard, celebrated his ninth birthday last Saturday. He entertained 12 boys at a picnic feast.

A new women's contract bridge club has been organized. They plan to play every other Wednesday evening. The first meeting was held Sept. 15 at the home of Mrs. George Osterbeck on Euclid.

Guests of Mrs. Wilfred Walstrom at the bridge luncheon and fashion show held at the Birmingham Country Club last week were Mrs. Axel Nyberg and Mrs. Kelly Sundstrom of Edgewood and Mrs. Martin Wade of Bessing.

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. O'Keefe on Comfort drive last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. E. Belford Flynn and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Smiley and their children.

T. R. Macki, a former teacher at the Michigan College of Mines, is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Axel Nyberg of Edgewood. From here he will go to Columbus, Ohio, where he will teach at Ohio State University.

Bloomfield Glens is the site chosen by Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Conner of Detroit for their new home. Monday evening they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Carey of Middlebelt road.

Mrs. Guy L. Sintz of Adrian is spending the week with her son's family, the Edward Sintz of Walnut Lake road.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kurfeld of Euclid spent the weekend visiting friends and relatives in Loraine and Cleveland, Ohio.

Members of the Walnut Lake Women's Club were guests of the Will-O-Way theater last Saturday.

Mrs. James M. Walt of Walnut Lake road was aboard the S. S. America, last week, to bid goodbye to a friend, Mrs. Robinson who is to be a accredited officer of the United Nations General Assembly. On Oct. 7, Mrs. Walt will fly to Boston to attend the inauguration of the new president and the dedication of the new Branderis University.

Appointed by the Secretary of State, George C. Marshall, Mrs. Walt is a member of the National Citizens Committee for the planning and promoting of the new international holiday, Oct. 24, to be known as Peace Day. The anniversary of the day the charter of the United Nations became effective.
