Local Youngsters Return From Tour of Atlantic States

Another group of youngsters from the Birmingham area returned last week from an educational tour of the middle Atlantic states. The trip was conducted by Paul S. Gerhardt of Brookside school, Cranbrook.

Included in the party were Melinda Booth of Cranbrook road; Sally Blanchard of Glenary road; Carlis Higbie of Kensington road; Walter Taylor of Bingham road; Bill Hall of Waddington road and Richard Morse of Lone Pine road. Mrs. Wallace Cripps accompanied the girls.

As the most exciting of their ventures, the youngsters listed the visit to the U. S. Mint, the Navy yard and the Benjamin Franklin Institute in Philadelphia. The Smithsonian and the Museum of Natural History in Washington and climbing through the beautiful Caverns of Luray in the Shenandoah National Park were also considered highlights of the tour.

The travelers also saw Niagara Falls and the Gettysburg battlefield. They watched the smelting and rolling processes in the huge steel mill at Weirton, West Va., and saw the manufacture of rubber tires in Akron, Ohio.

Complete logs of the trip were written enroute and the historical background of famous places and shrines was emphasized.

Preparing for Play

Miss Jeanne Lloyd (standing) and Mrs. Philip Carlin are shown doing research on the lives of Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Lucretia Mott whose characters they portray in the League of Women Voters play.

A play entitled "One Hundred Years of Growing" and a tea will open the fall season for the League of Women Voters on Monday, Sept. 27 to be held in Birmingham Public Library auditorium.

Old and new members and their guests are to meet in the auditorium at 1:15 p.m. where they will be welcomed by Mrs. P. G. Garrison, the League president.

The play which is the story of the 100 years of women's progress and presents a portrayal of the lives of some of the most outstanding women in history has as members of the cast, Mrs. Allan Lutz, Mrs. Earl Triplett, Mrs. James E. Duncan, Mrs. Mrs. George Weinholt, Mrs. Owen Hendren, Miss Jeanne Lloyd, Mrs. Philip Carlin, Mrs. Robert Hatt, Mrs. Graham Shinnick, Mrs. R. S. Plexico and Mrs. Lawton Taber.

Others taking part in the production are Mesdames Charles Blunt, Thomas Stolberg, Howard Liverance, E. B. K'berg, W. H. Selmsater, Henry Foley, J. F. Mitchell, William Howell, Norman Weston, Peter Loomis, Blair Swartz and Stanley Cain. Mrs. Berrien Ketchum is directing the play; Mrs. Peter Loomis is in charge of properties; costumes are being handled by Mrs. Howard Liverance and Mrs. Lane Bishop has been named in charge of make-up.

Following the play, tea will be served in the conference room of the auditorium in the library.

GIRL SCOUTS

Janet Tobitt Comes Visiting
All Girl Scout leaders and youth workers in the field of music and dancing will be interested in the announcement that on Oct. 6 Janet E. Tobitt, compiler of the Ditty Bag of songs, will be in Birmingham for a meeting open to the public. The place and time will be given later.

Mrs. Spangenberg to New Post
Her many friends in the local community will be interested to know that Mrs. Robert Spangenberg, a volunteer worker in the local council, has accepted a full time job as field director for the Southern Oakland County Girl Scouts, with headquarters in Royal Oak. She feels that her volunteer job as trainer is being adequately and capably handled by two newcomers to Girl Scouting in Birmingham, Mrs. John E. Smith and Mrs. Robert D. Rinehart.

Girl Scouting in the News
From "All Over the Map" the Girl Scout section of The American Girl magazine for September we learn that President Truman has authorized a commemorative three-cent postage stamp honoring Juliette Low, the founder of Girl Scouting in this country.

Europe Travellers
Two more representatives of the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. have been in Europe this summer, representing their sister Scouts at the international encampment of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts held annually in Our Chalet at Adeboden, Switzerland. One of the United States girls, Penelope Wilcotts of Westchester, N.Y., has been a Girl Scout since the fifth grade, and the other Ann Elizabeth Forst, of Bedford, Ind., is now 20 years old and has been a Scout since she was ten.

Story in Magazine
Scouting comes in for a "just-what-the-doctor-ordered" story in the September issue of Parents magazine. It's entitled "What You Need is a Change" and it's a real life story of a mother with three children who achieves broader interests and a new outlook thru leadership of a Girl Scout troop. It's good, read it.

Holiday Workshop
In cooperation with the coordinating leadership education committee for Girl Scout Camping, Girls and Y-Teens, the Detroit Art Museum will conduct an adult holiday workshop for group leaders and others interested in ideas and techniques for Thanksgiving and Christmas decorations, crafts, and activities.

This will be a three week term, being held Tuesday evenings 7:30-9:30 on Oct. 5, 12, 19, and repeated Friday afternoons 1:00-3:00 on Oct. 8, 15, 22. There is a nominal materials fee for each class and registration may be made at the first meeting.

E. B. Foran
Whatever you do, don't miss the open house next Tuesday, Sept. 28. It promises to be quite an evening. There will be entertainment, dancing and refreshments. Everyone has been working like beavers to make this a success and we certainly hope to have a big turnout.

The October activity committee, Mary Alice Oakley, Bill Morrison and Bill Matich have already planned the month for the club. On Oct. 5 there will be a treasure hunt; Oct. 19 has been set aside for a hayride to be held out at Hagride Lane and Oct. 26 there'll be a Halloween party down in the Ranch Room. Don't forget the Ranch Room is open every Tuesday and Thursday nights. Everyone between the ages of 18 and 30 is welcome to come down and join in the fun.

OUR CONSTANT AIM is The Best Life Insurance Protection For You.

"Refined by long years of experience, liberalized by keen competition, and safeguarded by state laws and state supervision, the New England Mutual Life insurance policy is one of the most perfect contracts ever devised. It is the culminating result of over 100 years of effort to offer life insurance service on a strictly mutual basis. It is the product of stewardship and a trusteeship which has never swerved from the ideals of its Founders. It offers more privileges, more advantages, and more equitable treatment to policyholders than any other life insurance policy of any other life insurance company in America."
