Tea Opens Leader Dog Fund Drive

A tea and dog demonstration was held yesterday in the Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. John G. Wood as the starting gun of the fund drive for the Leader Dog League for the blind at Rochester, Mich.

Mrs. Ralph Polk, Jr., is this area's campaign chairman. Among those serving on her committee are Mrs. Wood, Miss Mary Berensford, Mrs. Gene White, Mrs. William Martin, Mrs. Charles O'Connor, Mrs. Joseph Flaherty, Mrs. Frank McGinnis, Miss Virginia Wood, Miss Ann MacDonnell, Mrs. Alvin Lambert, Mrs. John Stevenson and Mrs. Robert Vanderkloot.

Miss Dickenshed Engaged to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Marks of Easton, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Louise Dickenshed to Lawrence Arthur Neumann. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Neumann of Bentley drive.

Miss Dickenshed is a graduate of Sacred Heart Hospital School of Nursing in Allentown, Pa. During the war, she served as a first lieutenant in the Army Nurse Corps in the Pacific. Her fiancé was graduated from Cranbrook, attended the University of Michigan and is now studying at Lawrence Institute of Technology. An early spring wedding is being planned.

Fall Harvest Meeting Will Be at Kenwood

Kenwood, the home of Mrs. W. D. Thompson on 13 Mile road east of Lahser, will be the setting of the Bloomfield Hills branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association's Fall Harvest meeting on Monday, Oct. 4 at 12:30 noon.

Those attending will bring a "hot" or "cold" dish to share with each other and their own silver. Coffee will be served by the committee.

The program for the afternoon includes the bringing or sending "just for fun" of surplus from fields and gardens for sale or display or in fruit and flower arrangements.

Dr. Chamberlain to Address Guild

Dr. Katherine Chamberlain will be the speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the General Guild of St. James Church on Wednesday, Oct. 6 at 1:00 p.m. Her topic will be "Education for Peace in the Atomic Age".

Dr. Chamberlain was a research student in the Cavendish Laboratories of the University of Cambridge, England where early pioneering work in radio activity was done. She is now a full professor of physics at Wayne University.

Metamora Hunt Trials Will Be Held on Oct. 9

Metamora annual Hunter Trials again command the attention of members of the Metamora Hunt and their friends. Outside entries have been received for the Oct. 9 event from the Chagrin Valley Hunt of Gates Mills, Ohio, Holland, Flint and Battle Creek, Mich.

The trials are held on the property of the Metamora Club and the course is laid over a mile of natural rolling country.

The committee is headed by Mrs. G. J. Graham who is being assisted by co-chairmen Mrs. Laura B. Higbie and Mrs. James J. Blackwood. Other committee members are Mrs. James Bullock, Mrs. Ben Colman, Mrs. Theodore Gorenflo, Mrs. Edward Rothman, Miss Charlotte Nichols, Miss Ethel Flinn, Mrs. Henry Ledyard, Mrs. Edward C. Parker, Miss Jerry Rounds, Mrs. A. E. Reubens, Mrs. David Loewith and Miss Mary Margaret Sweeney.

The trials will be judged by Frederick H. Bontecou, M. F. H. of Millbrook, N. Y.

Climax is Hunt Ball

Luncheon will be served at the club house and the day is to be climaxed by a Hunt Ball at the Murphy Lodge.

Local entries have been made by Elliott S. Nichols, Ben Colman, William Reeve Clark, Mrs. Harold Wells, Mrs. E. R. Thom, Fred Morse, Miss Donna DiMarco, Charles Backus, Mrs. J. Deane Rucker, Mrs. James J. Phean and Mrs. Wilson W. Mills.
