Stress Need of Scout Leaders at PTA Meeting

The Pierce PTA meeting held last Thursday in the Pierce school auditorium, was attended by over 200 parents and teachers.

Mrs. M. E. Richardson, the president, presided at a short business meeting and welcomed new parents to the PTA. He reported that the number of children attending the school had increased from 388 last year to 418 this year.

Malcolm Ferguson, Pierce principal, gave a brief talk in which he expressed his pleasure in the attendance at the meeting and then introduced the Pierce teachers to the parents.

See Film

The main part of the program was concerned with a second film called "Girl Scouting in the Community". The film pictured the various phases of scouting at the different age levels and showed what scouting means to the girls who are scouts as well as to the leaders.

After the film, Mrs. Cassius Miller and Mrs. W. M. Milligan, who are both active members of the Birmingham Girl Scout Council, elaborated on many of the points introduced by the film and contributed some of their own personal experience as girl scout leaders.

Rewarding Fun

Mrs. Miller said she entered scouting work as a duty but shortly found it to be very rewarding fun.

From the scenic viewpoint at Miller stated, "the rewards are many. She learns to plan her own entertainment and she learns leadership and the democratic system of working in a group. From the point of view of the leader," Mrs. Miller continued, "she finds new friends, new interests and a lot of fun. Most important of all, she establishes a new and better relationship with her own daughter."

Mrs. Miller closed her talk by reminding the audience of the slogan of National Children's Week, "The foundation of our future is laid in our youth."

Need Leaders

Mrs. Milligan related Birmingham scouting to Pierce school specifically and informed those present of the great need for leaders for Girl Scout groups at Pierce. She said no mother or girl of scouting age should hesitate to volunteer as a leader and explained how the leaders are trained and how they are helped with their jobs by the Girl Scout Council.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. At this time parents and teachers had an opportunity to become better acquainted.
