Carol Dragstedt Becomes Bride of Robert Stauffer

In an evening ceremony in Bond Chapel at the University of Chicago on Saturday, Miss Carol Dragstedt became the bride of Robert N. Stauffer. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lester R. Dragstedt of Chicago, Ill., and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leslie B. Stauffer of Suislaw road. The couple repeated their vows before the Rev. Roland Schleich.

The bride was gowned in white satin which was fashioned with a lace yoke and insets of lace in the shape of bow knots in the hoop skirt. Her fingertip veil was held by a high crown and she carried white roses and gardenias. She was given in marriage by her father.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Thomas Jeffrey, a sister of the bride, who was dressed in periwinkle red tulle. Her bouquet was a cascade of yellow gladioli and she also wore a corsage of yellow gladioli in her hair.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald Boyes of Park Ridge, Ill., a cousin of the bride; Mrs. Edward Kitts of Mansfield, Ohio, a sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Harry C. Boardman of Reiffton, Pa., and Mrs. William Mullins of Chicago. Their gowns were of emerald green tulle and they carried white roses, gladioli and rose coronets of matching flowers in their hair. A three-year-old niece of the bridegroom, Mary Frances Fox, led the procession down the aisle as flower girl in a white dotted Swiss. She carried a rose trimmed basket of rose petals.

Harry Boardman of Reiffton, Pa., acted as best man and seating the guests were Lester B. Dragstedt.

TO THE PEOPLE in BIRMINGHAM and VICINITY

Your vote and support is respectfully solicited in the Primary Election to be held next Tuesday, September 14th.

I have appreciated the support which you have given me previously in the two terms I have served you as your State Representative. I am again seeking the office.

To date I have enjoyed the work in Lansing, and have felt that I have represented all the people faithfully. If nominated and elected I will continue to try and be a faithful public servant. I have the time necessary to devote to the office and to give it the attention it deserves.

I have no alignments with any group or organization and the only promise I have made or will make is to try and do a good job honestly. I believe the people in the 3rd District want that type of an individual in office.

Your full interest is urged in this Primary Election. Be sure and vote on Tuesday, September 14th, exercising the right which so many of our sons and daughters sacrificed so much to retain for all of us.

Sincerely yours,
 Howard R. Estes
