

Ladies' Luncheon

A ladies' luncheon and style show has been scheduled for Wednesday, Sept. 22 at 12:30 in the Oakland Hills Country Club. Reservations should be made by Sept. 20.

On the committee in charge of arrangements under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lee DeGrant are Mrs. D. B. Burleigh, Mrs. Hal H. Houghton and Mrs. L. J. Richard.

MOMS Announce Year's Programs

Mrs. Dick Johnstone, general program chairman of the MOMS Club has announced the organization's monthly program schedule for the coming year.

The club meets every third Thursday of each month at the Community House. In October at 8:00 p.m. the group will hear a talk on "Social Service in Relation to 'Cit'" by Mr. Fred S. Galoway after which there is to be a half hour of questions and answers. A social hour and refreshments will follow.

In November, pictures and a talk on "The Only African Republic, Liberia" has been scheduled for 8:00 p.m. and will be given by a representative of the Firestone Company.

An afternoon tea has been set for the December meeting and in January, Mrs. Henry Foley and Mrs. H. H. Corson will speak on the "Paradise of Happiness" at an evening meeting.

In February there'll be the traditional George Washington birthday party in the afternoon and at the March evening meeting, Mrs. John Ormond will report on legislation relating to or affecting veterans.

Mrs. Norman Lyle has been scheduled to give a book review on "Back Home" by Bill Mauldin, the cartoonist-writer, at the April evening meeting.

In May the group will elect its officers for the coming year and in June the MOMS will hold their annual picnic.

Reveal Engagement

At a family dinner last week, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Smith of Southfield road announced the engagement of their daughter, Margie Lou to Lawrence Keith Copeland, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Copeland of Westmoreland.

No immediate date has been set for the wedding.

Returns to Will-O-Way

—Minnie Jo Curtis, the Detroit radio actress who won such acclaim at Will-O-Way recently for her show-stopping performance in "My Sister Eileen", has returned to the apple barn theatre's stage in a light comedy entitled "Sailor Beware".

It was premiere night again Tuesday out Will-O-Way and the capacity crowd witnessed the return by popular demand of Minnie Jo Curtis in the final play of the apple barn theatre's straw hat season, "Sailor Beware".

Besides the popular Miss Curtis, the cast features Richard Charlton, co-producer and director at the playhouse in the role of "Dynamite Jones".

The play, a lively, hilarious sea-going comedy, made over 500 performances on Broadway and has been acclaimed as one of the all-time long run hits. It was written by Kenyon Nicholson and Charles Robinson, the co-authors of another recent Will-O-Way hit, "Apple of his Eye".

"Sailor Beware" will run every evening except Monday with matinees on Saturday until Sept. 18.

Progressive Club to Hear Mark Beltaire

Several Birmingham women have marked Sept. 23 on their calendars as the opening of the 18th season of the Women's Progressive Club of Highland Park branch YWCA. A "gala fest and luncheon" are scheduled for the first meeting since summer vacation.

Mrs. E. W. Kinsey, 18870 Hillcrest; Mrs. R. E. Greene, 950 Bates; Mrs. S. F. Schultz, 4755 Walnut Lake; Mrs. J. G. Slater, 673 Ardmore; Mrs. R. A. DeLone, 5275 Longmeadow; Mrs. C. Baker, 25801 School road and Mrs. A. P. Lafoon, 32251 Arlington.

The Progressive Club's luncheon meetings at 12 every Thursday are followed by speakers on varying subjects. First speaker of this year is to be Mark Beltaire, the Free Press "Town Crier" who is scheduled for Sept. 30.

For this meeting newcomers are especially invited. Mrs. G. J. Berglund, 324 W. Buena Vista, membership chairman, states that membership is open to any interested homemakers. Newcomers to Detroit are urged to call the Y for details. The YWCA is a Red Feather agency.
