

Girl Scout Orange Crate Theatre Tells The Story of United Nations

The Brownies in Pierce school Troop 22 lead by Mrs. Pat Gallagher and Mrs. Charles Blunt were the first to see the water color picture story, "The Girl Scouts and the United Nations" as given in an orange crate theater.

Mrs. E. W. Gaffil, recently elected president of Girl Scout Leaders in Birmingham and League of Women Voters chairman for United Nations to grade school groups, made the presentation. Both the script and drawings were done by Mrs. Gaffil.

From the happy girl scout roller-skating in scene I to the grateful girl scout telling family and friends what she has learned about United Nations' deeds—how war made unhappy children and United Nations helped to give them health and happiness, this story is most effective.

Ask For Names

Spurred by the UN movie, the Brownies wanted names of children in other countries, hoping

Mrs. Dick Larges Heads Lathrup DAR

Three Flags Chapter, DAR, of Lathrup, elected its officers for the coming year at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Richard Quayle in Barkley. Mrs. Richard Larges was named regent; Mrs. Robert Hopkins, vice regent; Mrs. Glenn Levey, chaplain; Miss Genevieve Wellman, recording secretary; Mrs. Wyman Adams, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ray Bodinus, historian and librarian and Mrs. Quayle, Mrs. John Gaydos and Mrs. Lyle Grueve, directors.

A report was given on the State Congress of the DAR held March 26 and 27. Three girls, Lore Ludwig of Farmington and Hi and Sara Ward of Walled Lake schools, represented this chapter. They were accompanied by Mrs. Robert Hopkins and Mrs. Richard Larges. The students are chosen by student and faculty vote in their various schools, and at the end of the year the one adjudged the best receives a U. S. Savings Bond of $100.

Wellesley Club to Hold Buffet Supper Tuesday, April 19

Members of the Detroit Wellesley Club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. Coit Allee, 756 Henley Drive, on Tuesday April 19, at 6 o'clock.

Following a buffet supper, Mrs. Sigurd R. Wendin of Grosse Pointe, president of the Club, will give a report of her recent trip to Wellesley College as delegate to the meeting of the Alumnae Council.

Plans for the "Flower Festival," to be held at the Detroit Institute of Arts, from May 17 to May 22, and sponsored by the Detroit Wellesley Club, will also be discussed. Chairman of the supper committee is Mrs. Edward C. Boss.
