MOMS Club Slates Book Review of GI's "Back Home"

Bill Mauldin's "Back Home" will be reviewed by Mrs. Norman Loyl at the monthly meeting of the MOMS Club on April 21 at 8:00 p.m. in the Community House.

"Back Home" concerns the problems of rehabilitation and the attitudes of civilians towards the Ex-GI. It is a satirically humorous book and is frank in its expose of a returning soldier's difficulties.

"Up Front" was Mauldin's first book and his cartoons became famous through the "Stars and Stripes".

Refreshments and a social evening will follow the program.

ST. CATHERINE'S GUILD

A work meeting of St. Catherine's Guild of St. James Church has been scheduled for April 20 at 8:00 p.m. in the Parish House. Mrs. Arthur Bull will be hostess.
