

Sports Showup

By Bob Bergoin

Of 75 ATO scholarship winners in the Detroit area in recent years, Pete Abrecht can claim the best record. Pete graduated from Baldwin in June '48 and is a freshman at Purdue University. His first semester record not only retained the ATO and special merit scholarship but also made the freshman honor society and "distinguished student" rating.

Participants and spectators using Pierce Field should park their cars in the parking lot in front of Pierce school. No cars will be allowed inside the fence.

Jack McBride, former Maple track man, played hockey for the Colorado College this season and is out for track. As a freshman last year he won medals in the 220, 440, and relay.

Baseball boys making the trip are Walt Bodle, John Dixon, Dick Halpin, Jim Hogan, Clayton Joyce, George Landino, John McGinnis, Ed Smith, Charlie Thomas, and Pat Wall.

Maple netters going are Jack Adams, Bill Buel, Pete Hartuff, Keith Melville, and Tom Nalle.

California Mental Tests Given at BHS

The California mental test given to juniors and seniors last week is part of a testing program which helps students plan for the future. The test was given to the juniors this year since long range planning is essential for high school students.

General results will be announced when the tests come back from Michigan State College where they are checked by machine.

In Ergasterion Production

Tom Hawley as Henry Aldrich assists Cynthia Creighton in the selection of a text to be read at chapel in a scene from "What A Life". This Ergasterion spring show will be given at the Cranbrook School auditorium on Friday and Saturday, April 22 and 23, at 8:15. Parents of these players are Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Hawley of 1377 Lyonhurst and Mr. and Mrs. S. Taylor Creighton of 735 Shirley Drive.

Ergasterion of Cranbrook has completed its casting for "What A Life", to be given on the evenings of April 22-23. Students from Cranbrook and Kingwood were joined by outstanding students of the Cranbrook Summer Theatre School in a double production of Clifford Goldsmith's "Henry Aldrich" comedy.

Leading the Friday night cast will be Jon Desenberg and Connie Grigg, on Saturday night Tom Hawley will play Henry, and Cynthia Creighton will play his ardent, Barbara. Completing the Friday cast will be Bruce Wil-

Washington Group Leaves Today for Eight-Day Trip

Excited members of the 1949 Washington group eagerly await the "all board" signal as they assemble to board the B and O ambassador for their trek to Washington and New York this afternoon at the Michigan Central terminal. Composed of seniors and the advisers, the group will travel all night arriving in Washington at 8:20 a.m. to begin the first full day of sight seeing.

The group will tour Washington and Annapolis for three days and then board the S. S. City of Richmond for a cruise down Chesapeake Bay from Baltimore to Old Point Comfort and back to Baltimore. From there they will proceed to New York for two and one-half days. Highlights of the visit to New York will be a visit to the UN headquarters at Lake Success and attendance at the play "Hottentot Boes". After leaving New York they will spend a day at Niagara Falls and will arrive home Friday night, April 22.

Faculty advisers accompanying the group are Mrs. Margaret Henderson, Miss Jean Adams, Janet Bainbridge, Ross A. Wagner, H. Ross Scrimgeour, Harold Newman, and Edward Bros. general director and organizer of the tour.

News Notes from Vaughan School

Because this has been vacation week in many colleges, some of the old timers have dropped in to see us during the last few days. Among them were Bob Presee, Helen Green, Robin Pearson, Dick Leal, Kay Ballantyne and Frank Greene. A couple of weeks ago Greenville Andrews and Jim Bay were in to see how the beloved old school was doing.

Among our alumni who are making fine records at college, Anne Presley was recently honored. She was one of 16 sophomores at Western College for Women honored at a special chapel. Miss Presley achieved an average on her first semester work that entitled her to inclusion of the dean's list. This honor is conferred in recognition of outstanding ability, dependability and academic achievement during the first semester work. Only students maintaining a "B" average or better in grades are eligible.

The Hillcrest staff has been very busy in and after school this week putting the final touches on the '49er edition. The copy went to the printers, Edwards Bros. of Ann Arbor, last Saturday.
