Now that the weather seems to be getting warmer and the gravel roads are drying out, city hall officials are all set for phone calls from residents who will complain about the dust, particularly those who have a road oiling project set for their street this summer.

Arthur E. Moore, Judge of Probate, announced that he will be holding court in the 21st day of April, 1949, at the Court House, 11th St. and 12th St., Birmingham, Michigan.

Section 4.5 of the State of Stanley L. Case, Mentally Incompetent, having filed in said court a petition praying that the time for presentation of claims against said estate be limited to three months and that the executor, administrator and all claimants be appointed and adjusted of all claims against said estate by and before said date.

Section 142 of the City of Birmingham, entitled Building Code, by amending Section 8.4 of the City of Birmingham Ordinance No. 184 of the City of Birmingham, Michigan, passed at a public hearing held at the City of Birmingham, Michigan, on the 28th day of March, 1949, at which time and place opportunity will be given to interested parties to be heard.

serial designation A-7-45 of the American Society for Testing Materials (ASTM) shall be used in the building of structures shall be designed and constructed in accordance with the "Steel Construction Manual of the American Society for Testing Materials," present serial designation A-7-45 of the American Society for Testing Materials, except that: (a) Compressive stresses in cast iron columns shall not exceed values determined by the formula: P = 9000 - 40 L. In which: P = Compression in pounds per square inch. L = Length of column in inches. R = Least radius of gyration of the column in inches. The value of ratio L shall not exceed 75.

Section 142 of the City of Birmingham, entitled Building Code, by amending Section 8.4 of the City of Birmingham Ordinance No. 184 of the City of Birmingham, Michigan, passed at a public hearing held at the City of Birmingham, Michigan, on the 28th day of March, 1949, at which time and place opportunity will be given to interested parties to be heard.

of the necessary workmen to install bridging, are shown on the plans. (a) All joints shall be bridged at intervals of not less than 10 feet, with top and bottom chords in contact, and bridging shall be capable of supporting the full live load between the braced beams. (b) Steel joists shall be assumed to act as arches. (c) The deflection due to required construction shall not exceed 1/250 of the span. (d) The allowable load capacity of joists shall be determined by computing two or more joists shall be braced in place shall support in the top chord. (e) The design and construction of all connections shall be in accordance with the "Code for Fusion Welding," as adopted by the American Welding Society, latest edition, 1933. (f) Provided, however, where standard details are referred to by a serial number, such designation shall not be subsequently altered or revised. It is hereby ordered that the latest revision of the "Code for Fusion Welding" shall be applicable to design and construction of all connections and bracing for designations of such standard details. This Ordinance shall be effective upon filing in said court a petition praying that the time for presentation of claims against said estate be limited to three months and that the executor, administrator and all claimants be appointed and adjusted of all claims against said estate by and before said date.

Around The Cracker Barrel

Did you ever notice how carefully most writers and columnists avoid the use of the personal pronoun "I"? If one of these writers wants to say "I think . . ." he goes into something like this: "It would seem, from all of the evidence appearing at this time, that most opinion is to the effect . . . etc."

I think the people of Birmingham, and environs, are the nicest people to deal with that a merchant could find anywhere. Last Saturday was our first anniversary in the Village Store, and that day was one of the most unusual in my life.

But there is a clue to the solution of this mystery, which goes deeper than the feeling of friendliness. It is the knowledge on the part of our people that highest quality can go along with a fair price.

One man put it this way: Last Fall, he said, he met a young hunter on one of the broad sweeps of one of the Dakotas. The young hunter was dressed in a beautiful hunting coat, carried a fine gun. Our friend carried his old Winchester 24, and his hunting jacket was a bit soiled and bedraggled.

After all, nothing happens by chance. No one would have come into the store last Saturday if they did not know that here was a place where you bought quality. If you had been short-changed on quality during our first year, you—and the others—would have stayed away by the hundreds.

Now this White Stag company of Portland, Oregon, undoubtedly makes the finest play clothes in the country. They only make quality. During our first year we sold you more products of White Stag than we did of any other manufacturer.

We brought the first of the new Cotton Tickin' styles here by airplane. You saw some on models at the store last Saturday. But we have done one thing more—which has not been done by any other store in Michigan.

Now we did this for one reason only. You don't want to meet your own outfit at a picnic, or walking down the street. Birmingham isn't too big a town, and such a thing could well happen if we only carried one or two of the lines, like most stores. So all eight of the different lines, each with several colors which can be mixed in stripes and solids, gives you the best assurance possible that your outfit will likely be different.

There are several cheaper imitations on the market. You can buy a goldtone denim skirt for a dollar less than the $5.95 price of the White Stag skirt. But, for that dollar you will give up much in quality and an infinite amount of styling.

You ladies shouldn't wait long to get ready for the wonderful months ahead. Already this Cotton Tickin' is moving out in quantity. It's going to be difficult to keep every style in every color and fabric. You'll be wise if you plan and secure your outing clothes now.

And for the men, White Stag has three different colors of slacks, shorts and coats. Two are in a light weight denim, being faded blue and brick red. The third is in navy sailcloth, with white stitching. For guarding, golf, sailing, or just loafing, these outfits are unusual. And the prices will amaze you. Slacks in denim at $6.50, coats' the same. Shorts cheaper, sailcloth slightly more. And you'd better consider how you'd look in that brick red outfit. For I know your wives will be buying it for you.

So, as we start our second year, we'll stick to our plan of having only the finest National Brands. Here you'll always get top quality at a fair price.
