

Departments of Woman's Club to Meet on April 19

Three departments of the Birmingham Women's Club are slated to meet on Tuesday, April 19. The American Home department meets for a 1:30 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. Charles R. Woodall, 1515 Fairway. Mrs. Katherine Valley is chairman and Mrs. Arthur Peck and Miss Lucy Parley will serve. The program will be a talk by the Rev. Emil Kottz, pastor of the First Baptist Church, on "A Look at Some Homes in Central Europe." He will relate some of his experiences in Europe last summer. Mrs. George Jackson is chairman of the day. The literature department will meet for luncheon at the home of Mrs. Charles T. Beals, 139 Brown street. The program will be a "Spring Reading" by Mrs. William F. Dick. Mrs. T. W. DuBois is chairman of the day and serving the luncheon will be Mrs. Ralph Main, chairman; Mrs. H. E. Tremper, Mrs. H. D. Harris and Mrs. Clarence Vliet. Mrs. Matthew Cammarere, 312 South Adams, will open her home for the luncheon of the Fine Arts Department. Mrs. Glen Waggoner, Sr., is the luncheon chairman and she is being assisted by Mrs. M. F. Burch, Mrs. C. G. Wootton and Mrs. H. T. Ellerby. Mrs. Clare Hagey will read selections from "Pippa Passes" by Robert Browning and Mrs. Edgar Eberole, soprano, will sing some of the poems.

Show Paintings in Detroit Exhibition

At the annual Exhibition of Art by the Michigan Academy members, Fine Art section which is hanging in the Scarab Club in Detroit, four Birmingham women are represented. Kathleen Birch is showing her "Portrait of Alberta"; Dorothy Denyes has her "Endeavor Lake" in the exhibition; "Still Life Flowers" by Alice Thresher is in the show and Mildred Williams "Lydia" is also on exhibition. The exhibit closes today. Although not always successful, dreams are devices for allaying disturbances which would interfere with sleep, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Cinderella—1949 Version

From among 175 prospective Connecticut brides who were measured to find the one who fit a French wedding gown perfectly, Miss Connie Eacason, center, of New Haven, was selected. Accompanying the bride, gown, one of the gowns of the French Merce train, was the stipulation that it was to go to the Connecticut girl anticipating a June marriage who fitted it best. Measuring Connie for the gift is designer Madam Popot of West Hartford, while runner-up Selma Demand of Wolcott looks on.

Women Voters to Present Program on Local Library

A program on the Baldwin Library will be given on Monday, April 18 at 1:15 p.m. in the Clinic Room of the Community House by the League of Women Voters. Mrs. Robert Silbar, local government chairman, will preside. Mrs. John Lambie, chairman of the Baldwin Library board, will present the library history and review the budget and financing. Mrs. Paul Penfield will compare Baldwin's present standards of book stock and personnel services with those of other libraries and will also make suggestions on future plans. The Birmingham city charter will be given and other sources of the library support is to be given by Mrs. William H. Burlington. The League hopes to inform as many users of the library as possible on the local project and the meeting is open to the public. Atlantic Pact Preceding this program, Mrs. F. Chalmers will answer the dominant question asked by many people, "What is in the Atlantic Pact?" The senate's ratification of this treaty, if they ratify it, may be the most important act by our Congress since the end of World War II. The local League which has not taken any stand as yet on this bill will hold a membership discussion of the merits of the Fair Practices Act. Mrs. W. W. Williams is to serve as moderator following a presentation by Mrs. Raymond Giffles and Mrs. John K. Ormand. Mrs. James Dunne of the Inter-Lake League and Mrs. John Q. Nagel will explain pending state legislation to provide a four per cent corporate net income tax (senate bill 103).
