The Boy Scout committee is planning a financial drive May 17, 18 and 19. The money contributed will be used for scouting in this area, except for a portion which will be used for the reconstruction of Camp Ogawam, located near Lake Orion. This is the camp Walnut Lake boys attend. W. E. Kendall will be captain of the drive for the Banker subdivision. Donald Sellner as captain will be assisted by William Sloat and Hector McDougall taking contributions in the Whitmer subdivision. For the Walnut Lake Estates area, Bill Boston will serve as captain.

Mrs. Charles Boucher of Wy-cliffe combined with pussy willows, were used by Mrs. Richard McKay to make an attractive centerpiece for her dinner table. Guests of the McKays were Norine's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Rhonemus, her mother, Mrs. Freda Loutens and Dr. V. E. Richards.

The dramatic group of the Women's Club is practicing and working hard getting ready to present a play at the May meeting of the club. The title of the play and all the particulars are under a secret. They want to surprise us!

Jack Hadfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hadfield of Poplar Lane, celebrated his 12th birthday by passing his tenderfoot test, receiving his badge and becoming a member of the Boy Scout troop.

Guests at the Wycliffe home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rice and Nancy of Kalamazoo and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cramer and Max of Pontiac.

The Cub Scout committee met Monday evening at the home of Stewart Schultz on Walnut Lake road. James Mellish presided. Plans for the future of Cub scouting in this area were discussed.

Newcomers to Walnut Lake are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Killing. They moved here from Birmingham where Killing is a city employee. Their newly-completed home is on the corner of Edgewood and Lawndale.

The Walter Carey family of Middlebelt attended a wedding in Evansville, Ill., on April 10. Mrs. Carey's brother, John D. Townsend, was the bridegroom, his bride was Miss Emmanae Martin of Evansville.

Easter guests of the Clayton LaMotte family were Mrs. LaMotte's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jeffery of Rochester and her brother's family, Mr. and Mrs. William Jeffery of Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Satow of Inkster entertained Mr. and Mrs. William Boston and their children at a 12 o'clock brunch on Sunday.

Brownies had a treasure hunt and party on Monday at the home of Mrs. Hector McDougall. Each girl made her own favor from jelly beans and Easter eggs. Hostesses were Barbara and Barbara Sinclair. A fancy egg was presented to each Brownie. Mrs. Edson Stevens assisted.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Gormen and their daughters, Karen and Christine, left Friday on a trip to Florida. They plan to be gone about three weeks. Their return trip will be made up the east coast.

Mrs. John Kurdell of Euclid drive spent the weekend with her mother in Barton, Ohio.

The John Woodman family were among the 35 guests at a family dinner Sunday at the home of Mrs. Woodman's nephew, Dean S. Meier at Byron. Daughter Janet went home with her aunt, Mrs. C. L. Lahring to spend her vacation at Gaines.

An egg hunt took place on the school lawn Thursday afternoon with children from the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades participating. Patty Nyberg won the contest by finding five eggs. Her prize was a candy filled plastic egg.

Children in the fifth and sixth grades made a trip to Cranbrook on Monday. A guide took them through various buildings and explained the items of interest. The excursion was made in connection with their studies in science class. Their teacher, Mrs. Ruslander, accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Rockwell of Putnam drive attended the opening game of the Detroit Tigers on Tuesday.

A family breakfast was held at the home of George Hassett's sister, Mrs. Raymond B. Marantette at Roseland, Ontario. Mr. and Mrs. Hassett and Skippy attended Sunday morning and spent the day there.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dakin of scended upon an unsuspecting newcomer with gifts of food, home cooked and piping hot. Mrs. Newcomer was really surprised and seemed very pleased. She invited them to see her lovely new home and each one introduced herself.

On Monday the same procedure was repeated as another newcomer arrived. Moving day is such a hectic one, a ready prepared dinner is appreciated.

Request Denied

Permission to build a garage on property at the northeast corner of Brown and Pierce streets has been denied by the city plan commission because the proposed garage would not be conforming to the city's zoning ordinance.
