

THIS and THAT

By G. R. A.

Law of Change

While human beings do not intend to be anything but a man, the Law of Change is the force that is succeeding another. Mother Earth also runs its pattern of comic designs.

So Little Does About It!

Easton Sunday with its haloed story of the Resurrection, has come on again for 1949. Over the years it has become a Christian human consciousness was revived and re-lived the story of the resurrection of the Master.

Public Debt Never to Be Paid

With the United States federal debt now at approximately 250 billions of dollars, many are hearing about the nation's inability to pay it off.

Man informed on the future trend of housing in the United States

Man informed on the future trend of housing in the United States say that it will be toward mass dwelling units of small units, apartment houses. The cost of producing the conventional individual home is so high that the masses cannot afford to own their homes.

B of E to Adopt New Budget May 3

The Birmingham Board of Education will meet at Hill school next Tuesday evening, May 3, at 8 p.m. to adopt the 1949-50 school district budget.

Annual Poppy Days

May 29-31 will be "Poppy Days" in Birmingham, the city commission approved Monday evening. Dwight B. Ireland said this week. The public is encouraged to attend this meeting.

Get Cash For Your

DESK, TYPEWRITER, OR EVEN THAT OLD KITCHEN RANGE THAT'S BEEN MAKING UP MUCH NEEDED SPACE.

Summer Recreation Program to include New Theater Group

Young people of this city will at least have their "Birmingham Summer Players" when the recreational board this year launches the largest project they have ever undertaken.

As a part of the regular summer recreational program, which has previously been devoted mainly to sports and competitive events, the Summer Players will feature a six-weeks theatre workshop, open to high school and college students, along with interested adults.

Agree on Need for Better County Health Facilities

Immediate need for an Oakland County Board of Health, to assist in the expansion of public health facilities for this county was unanimously agreed upon Tuesday afternoon in Pontiac at a special meeting of the State and County health directors.

Public Debt Never to Be Paid

With the United States federal debt now at approximately 250 billions of dollars, many are hearing about the nation's inability to pay it off.

Kordell Resigns as City Engineer; Successor in Doubt

Successor to Leon B. Kordell as city engineer has not been determined. City Manager Donald C. Ebert stated this week.

Zeno Is Convicted on Larceny Charge

Albert Zeno of Pontiac was found guilty last week in Oakland county circuit court on a charge of grand larceny. The jury deliberated for more than three hours before reaching a verdict.

Hills Residents to Attend Hearing on Zoning Ordinance

Elmer Kephart, city manager for Bloomfield Hills, urged all city residents to attend the public hearing slated for Tuesday, May 2, at 8 p.m. in the Bloomfield Hills school.

Oh, Dear, What an Odor Around the City Hall!

If you visited the Municipal Building anytime during the past week and decided that there was something very fishy about the place—you'd be, exactly right. There was.

City employees knew it right along, however, but the situation got the best of them Monday morning when city commissioner Joe Granda, day maintenance man, a "committee of one" to relieve the stench.

St. James Expansion Under Way

Ground breaking ceremonies for the new Parish House of St. James Episcopal Church will be held at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Ground Breaking Tomorrow for $150,000 Addition

Ground breaking ceremonies for the new Parish House of St. James Episcopal Church will be held at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Police Continue Car Safety Drive

Police of Birmingham have stopped 284 automobiles in the first two weeks of the state-wide campaign against defective headlights and brakes.

Woman Is Injured in Accident Here Sunday Afternoon

Mrs. Edward Lewis Robar, Pontiac, received injuries to both knees, her right hand and head Sunday when her husband's car was involved in an accident at the intersection of 1848 1/2 and

'Clean Up Week' Starts Here Monday

Pick Ups To Be Made Only on Regular Days

"If it's in a box or other container, or thoroughly tied, and one man or woman can carry it to the curb, our men can get it on a truck and haul it away," was the way Director of Public Works Leland Gunn summed up the annual Clean-up Week service which Birmingham will offer.

Rotary Club to Mark 25th Anniversary

Birmingham Rotarians Wednesday evening next week will commemorate the 25th anniversary of the founding of their club with an appropriate program at the Community House.

Peace Memorial Plan to Be Disclosed at Dinner on May 4

The Birmingham Eccentric's campaign for improvement of cross-country highways received impetus this week with the filing of a petition demanding the resurfacing of Fourteen Mile Road.

Pontiac Man to Be Sentenced May 2 for Club Robbery

Edward C. Lockett, 22, of Pontiac, who had been arrested by a bus boy for the Bloomfield Hills country club, entered a plea of guilty to the robbery on Tuesday.

Woman in Accident Here Sunday Afternoon

Mrs. Edward Lewis Robar, Pontiac, received injuries to both knees, her right hand and head Sunday when her husband's car was involved in an accident at the intersection of 1848 1/2 and

Cab Driver Robbed by Passenger on Early Morning Run

Police are investigating the robbery early Saturday morning of Wallace Spahn, 41, driver for the Star Cab Company here. Spahn, who lives at 971 Humphrey, reported to police that he was held up and robbed in the vicinity of Coolidge and 14 Mile roads.

The driver told police that he picked up a fare on South Woodward and the man ever threatened as his destination. When they reached Coolidge, the man offered "Stop! This is a hold up. Give me your money!" Spahn told police.

Peace Memorial Plan to Be Disclosed at Dinner on May 4

The Birmingham Eccentric's campaign for improvement of cross-country highways received impetus this week with the filing of a petition demanding the resurfacing of Fourteen Mile Road.

Pontiac Man to Be Sentenced May 2 for Club Robbery

Edward C. Lockett, 22, of Pontiac, who had been arrested by a bus boy for the Bloomfield Hills country club, entered a plea of guilty to the robbery on Tuesday.

Woman in Accident Here Sunday Afternoon

Mrs. Edward Lewis Robar, Pontiac, received injuries to both knees, her right hand and head Sunday when her husband's car was involved in an accident at the intersection of 1848 1/2 and

Jr. Judd Sees 'Definite Design' in State Dept. Blunders

America's foreign policy is made up of inept blunders which are not inadvertent, stated Dr. Walter H. Judd in a speech before an audience of 400 people at the Community House on Monday, April 25.

Dr. Judd's congressional representative from Minnesota, pointed out that the main objective of a foreign policy is the security of the nation.

County Board for Road Improvement

The Birmingham Eccentric's campaign for improvement of cross-country highways received impetus this week with the filing of a petition demanding the resurfacing of Fourteen Mile Road.

Peace Memorial Plan to Be Disclosed at Dinner on May 4

The Birmingham Eccentric's campaign for improvement of cross-country highways received impetus this week with the filing of a petition demanding the resurfacing of Fourteen Mile Road.

Pontiac Man to Be Sentenced May 2 for Club Robbery

Edward C. Lockett, 22, of Pontiac, who had been arrested by a bus boy for the Bloomfield Hills country club, entered a plea of guilty to the robbery on Tuesday.

Woman in Accident Here Sunday Afternoon

Mrs. Edward Lewis Robar, Pontiac, received injuries to both knees, her right hand and head Sunday when her husband's car was involved in an accident at the intersection of 1848 1/2 and

16-Year-Old Youth Charged With Theft

A 16-year-old Birmingham boy was arrested by local police last week, and charged with having taken the car of William R. Baldwin, 1668 South Parking lot last Monday.

Board of Review Named by Mayor

Elliot S. Kinney and Merrill C. Adair have been appointed to the board of review by Mayor Donald S. Bell. City assessor E. J. Kinney will serve as the third member of the board.

SELL THEM WITH A CLASSIFIED AD.

PHONE 11

ASK FOR THE CLASSIFIED DEPARTMENT FOR INSERTION TUESDAY, 6 P.M.

'BEVERLY HILLS NEWS'

A new column concerning activities in the Beverly Hills area will appear in this week's Part 2.

Dr. Judd was presented to Birmingham citizens by the Birmingham League of Women Voters. Mrs. Charles Shain introduced the speaker.