Two Scout Troops Win Awards at Detroit Exhibit

Birmingham Scout Troop B-7 captured a blue ribbon award and Scout Troop B-4 a red ribbon award at the Detroit Area Scouting Exposition last week at Convention Hall in Detroit.

B-7 presented all the requirements for the blacksmithing merit badge and a blacksmith forge in actual operation. Manning the forge were Bob Boush, Don Evans, Ed Simetz and Don Trainor, all of whom have obtained Scouting merit badges in blacksmithing. Their exhibit was under the direction of Troop 7 Scoutmaster E. B. Palminter.

Twenty-five boys of Troop B-4 participated, presenting a rock and mineral exhibit at the exposition under the direction of Harold Holmes, B-4 Scoutmaster.

Baldwin Graduates Are Active in Many U. of M. Schedules

By Jim Hogan

In the recent University of Michigan all-campus elections several Birmingham alumni were successful candidates.

Charles Murray, who graduated in June, 1947, was one of 38 elected, from 61 candidates, to serve in the student legislature. He will be a junior representative. Chosen as secretary-treasurer of the sophomore engineering class was Bill Hickman, June, '48.

According to a letter from the headquarters chapter in New York, the national fraternity, Phi Gamma Delta, awarded Hickman the trophy for being the best freshman pledge of 1948-49. Lloyd Appell, another member of the June, 1947 class, has served as president of the east squad this year.

Taking part in the Union Opera's all-campus production, "Frog Bottom," were Howard Bess, Bob Brungarher, Jim Ensign and Pat Patterson, all of Birmingham.

Birmingham Seniors Visit Historic Williamsburg, Va.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. — A group of 14 students from Baldwin high school, Birmingham, were here recently touring this one-time colonial capital city that has been restored to its appearance of the 18th century by John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

The students were accompanied by Mr. Wagner. They were given a special escorted tour of several of the buildings that have been restored or reconstructed to show they looked two centuries ago and saw the setting in which many significant acts in the struggle for independence took place.

Referred to by educators as a "living laboratory" of early American history, Williamsburg is annually visited by more than a half million persons.

Hills High School Plans Track Meets

Richard Spiess, coach and athletic director at Bloomfield Hills high school, announces the following schedule of track meets, in which his team will participate. The first will take place with Mt. Pleasant on May 6, and will be followed by the D. U. S. Triangular meet on May 10 between the Hills, Edison Institute and the Detroit University high school. On May 18 the Vaughanites will compete in the Clarkson meet against that school and Auburn Heights.

The regional meet will be held on May 21, probably at Marine City. The final meet will be the finals on May 28 at East Lansing.

Gold Rush Motif to Mark Kinsw'd Prom

Turning the pages of history back 100 years, the senior class of Kingswood School Cranbrook selected the Gold Rush as the theme of their annual dance, presented by the minors of '49.

The wheel of a covered wagon, placed at the entrance, will have spokes missing to permit the couples to enter through it. Dark blue streamers and gold stars will simulate a night sky and an imitation log fire will center the dance floor. During the dance, from 8:30 to 11:30, refreshments will be sandwiches and cookies, served in the lobby.

Carol Gillow is chairman of the music and refreshment committee and working with her are Elizabeth Galligly, Sue Kennedy, Barbara Rehn. Decorations chairman is Fatti Wright, assisted by Janet Newman, DeLayne DeYoung and Nancy Rutherford. Nancy Hogan is publicity chairman and her committee is Alice Spero, and Imogene Powrie.

Bloomfield School Plans Class Banquet

Juniors and seniors at Bloomfield Hills high school are busy with plans for the junior-senior banquet which is scheduled for Wednesday, May 4, at 6:30 in Devon Gables.

The toastmistress will be Don Westerland. Jerry Levin, junior president, will give the speech of welcome. Seniors on the program include Dick Blake, Joan Wood and Eddie Burch. Howard Rogers, junior president, will give the valedictory address. Edward Dykstra, junior sponsor, had charge of arrangements being made, while Sue Wendell is the student chairman of the program committee.

It has been estimated that in the manufacture of all electric toasters in the United States in the past year over 265,000 pounds of nickel were used for one vital part—the heating element.

School Notes from Big Beaver

The junior class of Big Beaver high school will present their play on Friday and Saturday, April 29 and 30 in the Big Beaver Methodist Church auditorium. The play is directed by Miss Ann Radwanski and Miss Gladys Manougian. The cast includes: Cathleen Chapman, Stanley Silverski, Dolores Kurkowski, Eva McPhee, Jim Armstrong, John McFarland, Mary Frittinger, Dolores Spencer, Effie Gibson, Walter Haynack, and John Hodges.

Stuart K. Baker, superintendent of the Troy schools, and Glenn Wooler, principal of Big Beaver school, will attend Schoolmasters Club in Ann Arbor tomorrow.

Friday, April 29, Senior Control Day will be held at Big Beaver high school. Members of the senior class will teach all high school classes. Irvin Sutherland, senior class president, will take over the job as principal and James Burgess, vice-president, will be assistant principal.
