

Wellesley Club's Flower Festival May 17 to 22

A city-wide, non-professional show the Flower Festival will be held in the Great Hall and adjoining galleries of the Detroit Institute of Arts May 17 through 22. The event is sponsored by the Detroit Wellesley Flower Club in cooperation with the city's garden and horticultural clubs and will offer every garden fan a chance to gain recognition. There will be no admission charge for either contestants or visitors.

Requests for schedules or entry blanks should be made to Mrs. Carl Greco, 2618 Pingree avenue, Detroit, or, after May 1 to Mrs. Harrison Thurston, 385 Portlan. All entries must be in by May 10.

A special feature will be "Children's Day" on Saturday, May 21, when special awards for children's entries will be made.

Among the localities working on the Wellesley Club Flower Festival are Mrs. W. Coit Allen, Mrs. Edgar L. Bailey, Mrs. Garvin Hawdon, Mrs. Susan Collins, Mrs. Glen Davis, Mrs. Eleanor Gaffill, Mrs. Robert Grindley, Mrs. E. Kerr, Jr., Miss Jeanne Lloyd, Mrs. William McNaughton, Mrs. Marc Patten, Mrs. Edward S. Reid, Jr., Mrs. Harrison Thurston, Mrs. George Wiley, Mrs. G. Thorndyke Dweley, Mrs. Wayne Andros and Mrs. Edmund Hawgen.

Are Married in Candlelight Service at Christ Church

Wearing a princess style gown of chantilly lace over ivory satin, Miss Jeanne Lucie Helgeson became the bride of Harold M. Watts in a single ring candlelight ceremony at Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday evening at 8:30. The couple, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August G. Helgeson of Broadway boulevard and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice D. Watts of Embassy avenue, exchanged their vows before the Very Rev. John J. Weaver of St. Paul's Cathedral.

Miss Helgeson's bridal gown was fashioned with an off-shoulder neckline highlighted with a small scalloped herbe collar. A matching scallop of lace was applied on the flesh-colored yoke of illusion. Her sleeves were long and traditionally pointed over the hands and her full skirt swept into a circular train. A close fitting cap of rose point lace which formed a small ruffle at the sides held her fingertip veil of silk illusion and she carried a white orchid surrounded by small orchids which was covered with lace to match her dress.

Miss Dianne Helgeson, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor wearing a pale green toned taffeta cut with a boat neckline and a yoke of fresh colored marquisette, short sleeves, a double peppy hip and a full hooked skirt. She wore a crown of matching maline made to curve under the neck and drape over the shoulder.

Mrs. Harold Watts

Mrs. Norman James, Jr., of Birmingham; Mrs. Richard Ernst of Pine Lake; Miss Peggy Metcalf of Oakland, Calif.; and Miss Ann Petri of Minneapolis were in lavender taffeta gowns identical to the bride's. The bouquets were also purple orchids and ivy. Miss Judith Helgeson, another sister of the bride, acted as flower girl in a pink taffeta dress made with a bertha collar with a long pink veil and a crown of white mits, gathered skirt, and white mits. In her hair she wore pink orchids and ivy to match her bouquet.

Frank Watts acted as his brother's best man and seating the guests were Hugh Mack, Norman James, Jr., Jack Steelman and Louis Haggopian of Birmingham; Robert Frick of Detroit; Dolph Neeme of Grosse Pointe; George Welch of Pleasant Ridge and Richard Helgeson, a brother of the bride, of Birmingham.

For the wedding, Mrs. Helgeson wore a navy blue lace, matching accessories, a pink hat with a blue veil and a cymbidium orchid corsage. Mrs. Watts was in charreuse and avocado green with a matching hat and accessories. Her corsage was of green orchids.

Following a reception held at the Oakland Hills Country Club, the couple left for Washington, D.C. and Virginia Beach. For the first step of the journey, Mrs. Watts chose a navy blue tulle suit with a navy blue hat, navy blue and red accessories and a white corsage.

Upon their return, they will make their home in Clawson.

Baldwin PTA Plans Final Meeting for Wednesday, May 4

This year's fourth and final general meeting of the Baldwin high school PTA will be held on Wednesday, May 4 at 8:00 p.m. "Achievement Night," the name chosen for the event, indicates what the evening will offer.

After a short business meeting and election of officers, there will be a half hour program in the auditorium with music by the hand under the direction of Arnold Berndt and selections by the chorus which is directed by Victor Ulrich.

Forensic winners, Jack Fontaine with his "What Price Murder" and Ed Mats with "Scratch the Newby's Dog", will show what Charles Thurner has accomplished in his debate classes. Parents will be taken on a student-conducted tour which will show every phase of the school curriculum. They will see home-ec, shop, business, math, and science classes just as they are conducted every day. Each department of the school will attempt to demonstrate that has been accomplished through this school year.

The occasion will mark the culmination of many hours of work and planning by the school teachers. Mrs. Carol Darling is general chairman of the faculty committee and is assisted by Mrs. Virginia Short, Mrs. Joan Marks, Miss Dorothy Allen, Miss Ruth Hall, Charles Thurman, William Sloan and Rose Scrimgeour.

The parent committee chairman is Mrs. Peter Loomis and assisting her are Mrs. Lance Minor and Mrs. William Carter.

Tea For Graduates

Girl graduates of the June and January classes of Baldwin high school and their mothers will be honored at a four o'clock tea today.

The occasion will be given by Mrs. Joseph E. Williams will preside at the tea tables.

College Soloist

Nancy Keyes

Miss Nancy Keyes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Keyes of Hazelwood avenue appeared as soloist with the Stephens College Concert Chorus last Saturday evening at the Missouri School of the furture.

Miss Keyes, a senior at Stephens, is a student of Ernest Cox, head of the voice department at the school, and although she is not a music major, she was selected by members of the music school faculty to be soloist with the college radio singers, the Stephen Suzettes. The Suzettes are heard regularly over KWWC Columbia, Mo.

Elected to membership in Sigma Gamma Gamma, Miss Keyes is also a member of Theta Alpha Epsilon, honorary music and drama sororities, and to Orchestra, a recital group in modern dance.

Guest Speaker at Monthly Meeting of Poppleton PTA

Poppleton school PTA will hold its monthly meeting on Wednesday, May 4 at 8:00 p.m. Guest speaker of the evening will be Robert Whiteley, acting director of the Clifton Valley Clinic.

The Poppleton PTA and the Log Cabin PTA will be joint hosts to the Oakland County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations of Friday evening, May 13 at 8 o'clock. The meeting is to be held at the Poppleton school, Troy.

Will-O-Way Theatre

There's activity out Will-O-Way again as Ken Turner, Harold Meiner, and Bill Merrill complete their plans for the opening of the Will-O-Way Theatre (the latter part of June). The apprentice theatre will again be open to stage-minded aspirants and will run from the opening day of the Will-O-Way season until Labor Day.

Township, located at Crooks and Bi-Beaver roads. Remember the date, May 15, and plan to attend this event as an interesting program is anticipated.
