Executive Committee of Adams PTA Votes $100 for New Books

The executive committee of Adams school PTA held its regular meeting last Monday. Mrs. E. K. Leavenworth, president, announced that no April PTA meeting would be held but urged that the committee members attend the board of education meeting at Hill school on April 11 when facts and figures regarding the new high school would be presented.

An Adams school delegate to the Michigan Parent-teacher convention was approved by the committee. The convention will be held at Escanaba the latter part of this month.

Mrs. F. B. Hubert, chairman of the library committee, spoke of the need for new books, especially for the first and second grade pupils and the sum of $100.00 was voted to purchase new books for the Adams library.

Mrs. Frederick Meyer reported on the school and PTA problems discussed at the meeting of District 6 Spring Workshop, which she and Mrs. Theodore Fieling attended and which was held at Port Huron.

The Arts and craft room will soon be ready for the use of all pupils. Mrs. Harvey B. Greene, in charge of this project, advised that supplies are being assembled and paints and easels as well as nails, hammers, coping saws, drills and other equipment will be set up by the fathers.
