Baldwin's Easter Parade of Fashions Will be Presented This Afternoon

By Betty Drake

The Easter parade of fashion is being presented this afternoon at Hill school by members of the Baldwin clothing classes. Invitations have been sent to mothers of girls who are modeling and to all women faculty members. Nancy Tracy, Elsie Swarwood, Carolyn Abbott, Peggy McPhail and Pat Holt were in charge of this.

The script was written and narrated by Betty Whitelaw and Dolores Beaman. Cecile Woodhouse, Judy Henderson, Marge Kose, and Martha Heikela made the decorations.

A committee from the foods class is in charge of preparing and serving tea following the show. Nancy Beck, Marge Thayer, Jean Harrison, Betty Lou Ackerman and Evelyn Horne are on this committee.

Girls modeling clothes will be Joyce Mosier, Carolyn Abbott, Cecile Woodhouse, Jean Hunter, Norma Dushaber, Dolores Beaman, Mary Jo Dewey, Fran Ritter, Marilyn Staley, Janet Thorne, Kathy Smith and Arlene Phelps.

Sue Pomeroy, Peggy McPhail, Dorothy Cutler, Judy Olson, Judy Henderson, Carolyn Cole, Pat Case, Pat Holt, Elsie Swarwood, Joan Simmons, Trudy Kurth, Elizabeth DeFaire, Shirley Quinn and Sonia Baker conclude the list.

Big Beaver School Classes Presenting Annual Spring Plays

The senior class will present its annual play on April 8 and 9, at the Big Beaver Methodist Church auditorium.

The play is "The Hutchinson's—Bless Them". The cast includes Paul Hutchinson, Jim Kirkpatrick, Lorraine Roberts, Dolores Spunk, Joe Hutchinson, Dale Oakes, Minerva, Joyce Hodges, Kay Hutchinson, Sally Matalali, Eileen Hutchinson, J u n i a M o o n e y, Grandma Davis, Evelyn Garvock, Mrs. Hutchinson, Helen Webster, Joe Wells, Luella Klusendorf, Davey Burns, Verle Prapp, Mr. Jackson, Irvin Sutherland and Ralph Hutchinson, Roy Duncan.

The young Hutchinsons and their friends are literally romping through life. Their home life is a series of emotional explosions, romantic misunderstandings, thwarted ambitions and violent bickering. Then, as a fitting climax, sudden good fortune—in the form of material aid to the almost completely demolished family—comes—solves all problems.

"Mountain Justice", the three act comedy chosen by the junior class of Big Beaver high school, promises to bring down the house when it is presented April 29 and 30 at the Big Beaver Methodist Church auditorium.

The play, directed by Miss Ann Radwanski and Miss Gladys Mastrogian, has a cast of eleven. The characters are: Grandma Slocum, Cathleen Chapman; Pa Slocum, Stanley Sitewski; Clem-intine, Dolores Kurkowski; Clarelle, Eva McPhee; Johnny Mathews, Jim Armstrong; Uncle Elmer, Johnny McFarland; Aunt Betty, Mary Fritzing; Mrs. Cheatham, Doralee Spencer; Mrs. Gaither, Elsie Gibson and Eberly, Walt Haynack; Jonathan Hatfield, "Terror of the Oaks", John Hodges.

The juniors have a special surprise in store for their audience. The "Original Corn Cobbers" will furnish the entertainment before and between the acts.

Traditional Enemies Cross Bats to Open '49 Baseball Season

When the Maple baseball team meets its traditional rival Cranbrook on April 12, the 1949 season officially gets underway.

The local nine competes on a home-and-home basis in the Eastern Michigan League and is aiming for first place.

The scheduled April 12 at Cranbrook; April 26, Hazel Park; April 29, Port Huron; May 3, Ferndale; May 6, Mt. Clemens; May 13, East Detroit; May 17, Hazel Park; May 20, Port Huron; May 24, Ferndale; May 27, Mt. Clemens and June 2, East Detroit.

His Reason

"I haven't seen you at church lately, William," said the preacher. "What's the matter?"

"My daughter's learning to play the harp," replied William.

"But what's that got to do with it?"

"Well, I'm not so keen on going to Heaven as I was!"
