Ray Cook Is Rotary Club's Golfing Champ

It took a playoff match between three Rotarians Monday night to determine who was the local club's "golf champ" for the year.

Ray Cook won the honor at the club's annual picnic at George Baldwin's home at Orchard Lake, where he dropped the ball into the Dixie cup with a round of four over the 18-foot course through the tall grass.

Harry Smart took the runner-up position with Phil Williams in third place. The three members had tied originally with three shots apiece earlier in the evening, but darkness during the playoff necessitated extra play.

THE SATISFYING ANSWER

Even deeper than humanity's incessant quest for freedom from discord and disease is its longing to understand life's purpose. Christian Science shows plainly that Life is God, and that the meaning of life lies in an understanding of John's statement (1 John 4:8), "God is love."

Every page of the Christian Science Textbook, SCIENCE AND HEALTH WITH KEY TO THE SCRIPTURES, by Mary Baker Eddy, brings this heartening and enlightening spiritual understanding.
