EATING OUR WAY TO HEALTH

What was true years ago is just as true today. The only difference being that we have more detailed knowledge as to the why's and wherefore's of the effects of diet on health. Most people make little use of this knowledge and Nutritional needs do not take their rightful place as the basis for wise eating habits.

Couple Married Saturday Honeymooning In Bermuda

Niagara Falls, New York and Bermuda became the destination of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Calvert Brown III, after their wedding Saturday evening. The 8 o'clock candlelight ceremony was performed in the Mayflower Congregational church in Detroit by the Rev. John B. Forsyth.

The bride, the former Barbara Ann Reid, wore a gown of white marquisette and Chantilly lace over white tulle, with a stand-up face collar. Her long sleeves ended in points over the wrists. Her finger tip length veil, of illusion, was held by a headpiece of marquisette and lace. She carried a miniature white Bible with a spray of Stephanotis and white ribbon streamers.

Miss Sally Jean Reid, the bride's sister, was her maid of honor. Her gown, of white marquisette over lavender tulle, was made with a sweetheart neckline, cap sleeves and a full floor-length skirt, with a wide lavender sash. She wore a white horseshair picture hat trimmed with a lavender bow and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and lavender gladioli.

The bridesmaids, Miss Nancy Taylor of Birmingham and Miss Marjorie Mollison and Miss Harriet Pearson of Detroit wore matching dresses. Their sashes, shoes and bouquets were of deep purple. Donald French of Detroit was best man, while Leonard Nichols of Bay City, James Stout of North Lake, Wisc., and David Houser and John Raketter, Jr., of Detroit seated the guests. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Raymond Reid of Detroit. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown III.

Mrs. Robert Brown III

Mrs. Robert Calvert Brown, Jr., and the late Mr. Brown, of Birmingham.

Mrs. Reid attended the wedding in a gown of cinnamon brown crepe with a yoke of beige illusion and white beading. Her hat, of net, matched the gown. She wore a white orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore beige tulle, a dark brown hat and a corsage of red carnations. The reception was held at the Dearborn Inn. Mrs. Brown chose for traveling an emerald green gabardine suit, a Madagascar straw bag and shoes, Panama straw hat with a green veil. Her corsage was of yellow roses. Upon their return to the States the couple will visit New York and Boston before going to Chicago, where they will reside. The groom is a medical student at Northwestern University.

Ontario Church Scene of Hooper-Carmichael Rites

The wedding of Miss Joyce Lorraine Carmichael of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., and William Davis Hooper III of Birmingham was solemnized Saturday, Aug. 6, in St. Andrews United church at 5 o'clock. The Rev. J. R. Morden officiated.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Earl Carmichael, wore a portrait gown of petal white corded tulle with long pointed sleeves and modest basque. The bouffant skirt was accented with tiered tucking and had a circular train. Her finger tip veil of French tulle illusion was caught to a trim of matching tulle. She carried a cascade bouquet of fleur d'amour with streamers of stephanotis.

Mrs. John Grant Taylor of Toronto, her sister, was matron of honor. She was gowned in Jonquil net over tulle with matching mitts and a chaplet of lace. Her nosegay bouquet was of baby carnations, sweet peas and baby's breath.

Other bridal attendants were Miss Elizabeth Rowlette Sault Ste. Marie and Miss Joanne Kelly of North Bay, Ont., a cousin of the bride, they wore gowns of airon blue tulle with matching mitts and hats. Their bouquets were of mixed summer flowers in different colors.

The groom's best man was Russell Waldstrom of Pleasant Ridge. The ushers included Jack Hooper, brother of the groom and John Clark of Detroit.

Mrs. Carmichael selected a dress of dove blue crepe with navy blue accessories, with which she wore an orchid. The groom's mother was attired in pearl grey with dark red accessories. She too wore an orchid.

The reception was held at the Sault Ste. Marie country club, after which the couple left for Lake Rosseau, Keweenaw, in eastern Canada. They will make their future home at Milford.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hooper of Vinewood.
