Miss Stephens is Wed Saturday to Roger E. Jacobi

In the First Presbyterian Church of Ann Arbor Saturday at five o'clock, Miss Mary Jane Stephens became the bride of Roger E. Jacobi. Mr. and Mrs. Hazen H. Stephens of Kilmer avenue are the bride's parents and Mr. Jacobi is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jacobi of Saginaw, Mich.

Wearing a veil of silk illusion held in place by a coronet of pleated illusion interspersed with valley lilies and carrying a colonial bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid, the bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her dress of ice blue slipper satin was styled with a sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves. Three inverted points were at the waist and the full skirt ended in a circular train.

Mrs. Wendell Will, as matron of honor, was in a tea rose toned taffeta gown that was fashioned with a portrait neckline. She wore matching mits and carried a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses. In her hair was a halo of matching flowers.

Serving as best man was John A. Jacobi, a brother of the bridegroom. Ushering were William Fead of Metuchen, N. J., and Terrence Catherman of Ann Arbor.

The Rev. W. J. C. Belch of Royal Oak officiated at the candlelight rites.

For her daughter's wedding and the dinner which followed in the Kalamazoo Room of the Michigan

League, Mrs. Stephens wore a deep delphinium blue chiffon with a matching velvet hat, pink accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. Mrs. Jacobi was in sapphire blue satin with dashu accessories and had pinned a corsage of talisman roses to her shoulder.

For traveling to the north, the new Mrs. Jacobi selected a blue palm beach suit with white accessories. Upon their return, they will reside in Observatory Lodge in Ann Arbor.
