Bride-Elect Feted
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer S. Haack of West Twelve Mile road were hosts at a dinner Sunday in honor of their niece, Mary Frances Peck, whose marriage to Don S. Galvin, Jr., will take place Sept. 3. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gora Peck of Gross Pointe, formerly of Gross Pointe, parents of the bride-elect, and her fiancé, Don Galvin, Jr., of Gross Pointe. The ceremony will be at St. Ambrose church, followed by a reception at Gross Pointe Yacht club.

No More Swimming
Summer swimming program has been abandoned for the remainder of the season to protect children from polo, director Robert Hall said last week.

Lower Tax Rate
The Township tax rate has been dropped $2.85 per thousand of assessed valuation. This represents a saving to residents of $67,372, according to Dudley P. Frame, supervisor. Areas not affected by the $1,300,000 school bond issue will benefit by the reduction.

Mail Delivery
Beginning Sept. 1; improved mail service will be started in Lathrup village and Beverly Hills, with an extra mail delivery in the morning. These areas have had but one daily delivery. Acting postmaster, Bernard F. Fowler of the Birmingham postoffice deemed the change advisable since the districts were grown in population.

Further improvement in mail service will be curb service to residents on McAllister road, west of Ten Mile road and Gleneyrie-Edgemont loop south of Ten Mile and east of Inlander. Residents formerly had a half mile distance to walk from their homes to group boxes.

No Polio Here
Oakland County Health department reports there are no polio cases in Lathrup village. There are two mild cases in Southfield township.

Birthday Party
A group of neighbors motored to St. Clair Inn last week for a luncheon party in honor of Mrs. Robert Marshall's birthday. Mrs. Marshall who lives on Goldengate drive, has just returned after spending a month with friends and relatives in Montreal, her native city. After a two weeks rest there, her family joined her and they spent another two weeks being entertained and sightseeing.

Houseguests Here
Mr. and Mrs. Neil Coppens of Santa Barbara drive had as houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Coppens of New Jersey. The week was spent in sight-seeing at the brother and his wife from the east had not visited here in many years.

Lt. Col. Martin S. Werngren and Mrs. Werngren, recently of Fort Bragg, N.C. are houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. O. Rayburn Bonner of San Jose drive. The colonel was with the Ordnance Department 5th Army Corps at Fort Bragg and released from assignment to take a two-year course for his masters degree on Industrial Management at the University of Michigan. They formerly resided in Detroit. The Bonners' other houseguests are Mrs. Ann Rasche and daughter Claudia of Memphis, Tenn.

Vacationers
Home from camps are the following: Frank Diederich, Paul, Ralph and Bruce Doerren; Roger Pepper; Michael and Joe Bell. Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Luhrs of Meadowbrook way left last week for a trip through the east stopping a few days in New York city, Massachusetts and returning home by way of Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stock are at home on San Diego boulevard after a week of fishing at Indian River Inn, Burt Lake. Baby Nancy Babington is in their care while their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Babington are at Saugatuck near Charlevoix for a few days.

Committees Named
The College Career annual Rose dance will take place Saturday, Sept. 16, in the Annie Lathrup school auditorium. A committee meeting took place last Thursday evening at the home of Joyce Watson of Lathrup boulevard. Clark Stewart is chairman of the event; Don Inman, Cutler Murphy and members, tickets; Jack Bengel and helpers, decorations; Marian Gray and Martha Albright, publicity; Bob Edgar and committee, refreshments.
