Springfield Girl Is Bride Of Frank R. Pierce, Jr.

At a wedding in the High Street Methodist church in Springfield, Ohio, Saturday, Miss Janey Powell Barcarof, of that city, became the bride of Frank R. Pierce, Jr., of Birmingham. The Rev. Harold E. Towns of St. James Episcopal church performed the ceremony. The bride, a daughter of Mrs. Ralph L. Barcarof, selected a gown of white Chantilly lace, over white satin. The gown was made with a high neckline and long pointed sleeves. Her lace cap was edged with seed pearls and held a finger tip veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, mums and baby's breath, with white streamers.

She was attended by Mrs. George Talmachoff as matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Harriett Giffen, Harriett Ann Barcarof, Nancy Pierce, Charlotte Marquardt and Mrs. C. K. Griffith. They wore matching rows of white organdy over lilac taffeta.
