Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Meigs J. Patterson celebrated their wedding anniversary Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lowe of Detroit who were also celebrating their anniversary. The four drove over to Windsor for dinner. The Pattersons reside at 32454 Sheridan.

Gadabout News

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fries, 4189 Arlington, just returned from a tour through New York State. They visited Niagara Falls, Lake George, Thousand Islands, Watkins Glen and Fort Ticonderoga on Lake Champlain and returned by the way of Canada. Their daughter, Betty, accompanied them. Now that they are home they are busy with the last minute preparations to prepare Betty for camp. She will leave Sunday for a two-week stay at the Girl Scout Camp Narin near Oranville. This is her third year and sounds very exciting as three of Betty's sixth grade classmates of Parker School are going at the same time.

Vagabond Trip

Tom and Fran Shellham of 11717 Auburn will pack up the family wagon tomorrow and leave Saturday for a trip to the wilds of northern Michigan. They can hardly wait to get back to Mother Nature and most of all, no routine. They are going to camp out and scout all their meals. They are going to fish, golf and swim. Last summer they left little Linda and Julia home and made such a trip and they reported that they had never had a more enjoyable vacation in their life and they can hardly wait for Saturday morning to get here.

Station Wagon Trip

Tomorrow morning will see the Warner family station wagon loaded down for a trip to Minneapolis. Bill and Betsy and daughters Betty and Lucy will go to visit Grandma and Grandpa Warner and see Bill, Jr. once again. Bill flew over a few weeks ago in order to spend the whole summer on Lake Minnetonka. Daddy Bill will fly back while the family will stay for a few weeks.

Canadian Vacation

Mrs. and Donald A. Gould of 16269 Berkshire will leave Saturday for a two-week trip to Ft. Francis, Ont., where they will visit Mrs. Gould's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. Rawn. Later they will go on to Algonquin, Ont., to see her father, N. A. McLeod. They will take Karen and Donna Jean, their two daughters with them.

Vacations

Denver, Colo., has had a lot of visitors from Beverly Hills this summer. Each week someone seems to be coming or going that way. This time the C. M. Drakes from Arden Place have just returned from that distant city. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Turner of Birmingham made the trip with them. Mr. and Mrs. John Holden of while spending a few days at Houghton Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Erickson of Berkshire returned last week after a two-week's visit up around Calumet. They visited Erickson's father and sister. His sister, Mrs. Ellen Talvensari came with them and spent the weekend here with her three sons, Earl, Roy and Bob. Monday morning they took Earl into Detroit where he left for service with the Marines.

Mrs. Edward J. Hill of 18275 Berkshire came home Monday for a week before returning to her cottage at Kincardine, Ont. It is on Lake Huron and she spends most of the summer there. Her daughter, Mrs. H. J. Ansteth, nee of Berkshire, stays all summer with her two sons, John and Michael. Last week Mrs. Hill had as her guests, Mrs. Harrington from Pontiac, Mrs. Herman Bush of Brayton Plains and Mrs. W. Metosky of Chicago.

LET IT RAIN

This girl laughs at a shower. She's wearing a new water-repellent scarf, fashioned of soft, pure silk. It's a decorative accessory that offers real protection in a sudden rain-storm.

Sheridan Drive leave today for Chicago for a visit with both Mr. and Mrs. Holden's parents. Their youngsters, Sherry and Sandy, will accompany them. Saturday the Holdens entertained at a steak roast and their guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Kluebert, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hahset and Mr. and Mrs. John Hinchey.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hannaum of Beverly Road have left for their cabins up near Vanderbilt for two weeks. Lynn and Barbara and Walter's sister and brother-in-law went along to enjoy some swimming, fishing and just plain loafing.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Randall of 18331 Beverly Road went to Maywood, Ill., to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mason and their two grandchildren, Sandy and Judy last weekend.

Betty Schack, 16234 Berkshire, daughter of Mrs. Ella Schack, is spending a month at Middle Straits Lake visiting her sister, Mrs. Thelma Howard. Betty will return before school re-opens to take up her position as secretary for Malcolm Ferguson, principal of Pierce school.

Mrs. Lowell B. Page, 18270 Kirkshire, and son Fritz left yesterday for Madison, Ohio, where they will visit Mrs. Page's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Glose. Mrs. Page and Fritz are looking forward to the boat trip to Cleveland where they will board a train to Madison. Lowell, Jr., and his dad will join them later. They will all return after Labor Day.

Hospitalized

Danny Danville is coming along fine after an operation last week at St. Joseph hospital. He should be home by the time you read this and wouldn't be surprised to see him out working in the yard.
