Cranbrook Exhibits Ernest Freed Works

From August 3 through 28, the Museum of the Cranbrook Academy of Art is showing prints by Ernest Freed and glass, silver, African sculpture, student drawings and paintings from the museum collection.

Freed's etchings and engravings are experiments in new methods of printmaking and have been shown at the University of Illinois, University of Southern California, and the University of North Carolina. Some of the 25 pieces in the group are in color.

Visitors are welcome at the Museum of the Cranbrook Academy of Art from 2 to 5 daily, except Mondays.

Save the Foster family from Royal Oak! Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Foster and two children have moved into 1672 Edmona. He is with the Fisher Body corporation.

The owner of the Adair Press and his family? Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Adair are now making their home at 4424 Arlington, coming here from Detroit.

Have You Met? The elder Nelson has been in the building business around the Detroit area for 25 years. For the past 20 years he has maintained offices in Royal Oak. It is from there that the office is being moved to its present location.

The younger Nelson joined his father in business at the close of the war. In addition to the building office, he will maintain an insurance agency at the new location.

They will specialize in residential building of all types. They have already built several homes in and around Birmingham.

Each lighting man in the Navy consumes over a ton of food yearly; each ton requires 60 cubic feet of shipping space, about ten times the storage space of a standard home refrigerator.
