Andrew Spiegel to Wed Indianapolis Girl on August 20

An out-of-town wedding of local interest will take place Aug. 20 in Indianapolis, when Miss Joan Heaton Alford of that city becomes the bride of Andrew Pags Spiegel. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Alford of Indianapolis and Herbert W. Alford of Deland, Fla. Mr. Spiegel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Spiegel of Birmingham.

The bride will be attended by Mrs. W. S. Zaring and Miss Anne Spiegel. Stanley Spiegel will be his son's best man. The ushers will be Nicholas Martin, Jr., Edward Riddell and William Zaring. The Rev. Harold Towne, pastor of St. James Episcopal church will perform the ceremony in the Episcopal Church of the Advent there, after which a reception will be held at the Woodstock club.

Miss Alford is a member of the Indianapolis Junior League and a graduate of Denison University, where she was Kappa Alpha Theta. The groom-elect, a member of Phi Delta Theta, is attending the University of Michigan law school.

Club news deadline is at noon each Monday.

In Will-O-Way Comedy

Martha Craig

Beginning Tuesday night, August 2, Will-O-Way Playhouse is presenting the clever comedy "John Loves Mary" for two weeks, starring Gerald M. Harrington and Martha Craig in the title roles. The play, written by Norman Krause, is the hilarious tale of what happens when a GI marries an English girl to bring her to this country for his best friend to marry only to discover his friend already has a wife.

Along with Harrington, who is Will-O-Way's resident leading man, and Miss Craig, who appeared in the Ruth Gordon role in "Years Ago" at Will-O-Way last W. Meinert, George M. Hunter, summer, the cast includes Harold Burton Wright, Norrie Scott, Bette Wright, Ross Callaway, Fred Taylor and Milton Todd.

Meinert, technical director and set designer at the Playhouse, is featured in the role of Fred Taylor. Taylor, for those who know the story of "John Loves Mary," is the character who is the cause of all the complications in the play.

Radio actor Hunter, who also appeared at Music Hall for Detroit Stage during the summer of 1947, is making his second appearance at Will-O-Way. The first of the several showers was given when Mrs. L. F. Andrews entertained at a luncheon and kitchen shower at which Nancy Rutherford and Barbara Behn were co-hostesses. Mrs. Frank Andrews of Detroit entertained at a tea and bathroom shower.

Monday evening Sue Halstead and Jane Hood shared the duties of hostess to honor the bride-elect at a miscellaneous shower, while on Tuesday she was feted by the members of her mother's bridge club. The affair was at the home of Mrs. Fred Compton.

The spinach dinner will be given Thursday evening by a group of her friends. On Friday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, the wedding rehearsal will be held, followed by a dinner at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Warner.

St. James Church Is Scene of Christening
Ruth Hale Hodges, infant daughter of Mrs. James S. Hodges, Jr., was christened at a ceremony performed in St. James Episcopal church Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Francis Hoeflinger officiated. The baby's godparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph de Bruyn, Mrs. Harris O. Machus and Paul H. Gleye.

Following the ceremony at the church, the Hodges entertained at a dinner in their home. The guests included Mrs. Ruth Hale Hodges of Knoxville, Tenn., and Mr. and Mrs. George M. Dwellley, grandparents of the baby, with Mr. and Mrs. G. Thorndyke Dwellley and children, Mr. and Mrs. William Richards and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, Dr. and Mrs. A. Kenneth Stoltman, Dr. J. B. Hausberger and Harris O. Machus.

Photographs for publication in The Eccentric must be submitted by Friday noon of the week before publication.
